Subject: SAVE Educational Materials For YOU!

Do you have questions about the SAVE program? Are you a benefit applicant seeking more information on your status verification query? Are you a representative of a registered SAVE user agency or a student advisor seeking to answer questions posed by benefit applicants? SAVE has developed a set of plain language materials for benefit applicants. A brochure explaining the immigration status verification process is available in 18 languages on the SAVE website, www.uscis.gov/save under "Publications." This brochure will also be distributed by registered SAVE agencies to benefit applicants whose immigration status is not confirmed in SAVE's initial verification step. A postcard is also available, detailing the most common reasons benefit applicants are not verified during the initial verification step and offers tips.

For more information please visit the SAVE website at www.uscis.gov/save
