Dear Stakeholder –

Certain persons who applied for Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ) classification on or after May 13, 2005 and whose petitions were denied or revoked may be eligible to file a motion to reopen the denied SIJ petition (Form I-360) or SIJ-based application for adjustment of status (Form I-485). See Perez-Olano, et al. v. Holder, et al., 2:05-cv-03604-DDP (C.D. Cal.)

Please visit the Legal Settlement Notices page at www.uscis.gov to read more, including information on who is eligible and how to file.

NOTE: If you are unable to access the page through the link provided above, please do the following:

1. Go to www.uscis.gov
2. Select the "Laws" tab at the top of the page
3. Select "Legal Settlement Notices" on the left side of the page
4. Select "Settlement Agreement in Perez-Olano, et al. v. Holder, et al., Case No. CV 05-3604, in U.S. District Court for the Central District of California"

Kind regards,

Special Immigrant Juvenile Motions to Reopen before USCIS

Certain persons who applied for Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ) classification on or after May 13, 2005 and whose petitions were denied or revoked may be eligible to file a motion to reopen the denied SIJ petition (Form I-360) or SIJ-based application for adjustment of status (Form I-485). See Perez-Olano, et al. v. Holder, et al., 2:05-cv-03604-DDP (C.D. Cal.)

Am I eligible to file a motion to reopen?

You may file a motion to reopen if your SIJ petition or SIJ-based application for adjustment of status was denied or revoked on account of:

- Age if, at the time the class member filed a complete petition for SIJ classification, he or she was under 21 years of age
- Dependency status if, at the time the class member filed a complete petition for SIJ classification, he or she was the subject of a valid dependency order that was subsequently terminated based on age
- Specific consent

What should I include in my motion to reopen?

AILA InfoNet Doc. No. 11031561. (Posted 03/15/11)

If you are eligible to file a motion to reopen, please send USCIS:

- Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion
- The appropriate fee or fee waiver request if desired, using Form I-912, Request for a Fee Waiver
- Evidence that you filed your SIJ petition or SIJ-based application for adjustment of status on or after May 13, 2005
- Evidence that your previously filed SIJ petition or SIJ-based application for adjustment of status was denied on account of age or age-related dependency status or specific consent

Where should I mail my motion to reopen?
