Subject: USCIS Invitation: An Overview of Temporary Protected Status - July 23, 2013

An Overview of Temporary Protected Status (TPS)

Tuesday, July 23, 2013
3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m. (Eastern)

Dear Stakeholder,
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) invites you to participate in a teleconference regarding Temporary Protected Status (TPS) on Tuesday, July 23, 2013, from 3:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. EDT.

The Secretary of Homeland Security may designate a foreign country for TPS when conditions in that country temporarily prevent its nationals from returning safely or, in certain circumstances, when the country cannot adequately handle the return of its nationals. Once a foreign country has been designated for TPS, USCIS may grant TPS to eligible nationals of that country who are already in the United States.

During this engagement, USCIS subject matter experts will provide background information, including countries that are currently designated for TPS and eligibility requirements. USCIS officials will be available to answer questions.

For more information on TPS and currently designated countries, please visit www.uscis.gov/tps.

To Register for this Session:

Please visit our registration page to RSVP. Be sure to provide your full name and organization. Please follow these steps:

- Enter your email address and choose "Submit"
- Choose "Subscriber Preferences"
- Select the "Event Registration" tab
- Answer the questions and choose "Submit"

Once we process your registration, you will receive a confirmation email with additional details.

You are encouraged to submit questions before the teleconference. You may do so on the event registration page or by emailing us at Public.Engagement@uscis.dhs.gov. Please submit all questions by July 19.

If you have questions about the registration process, or if you have not received a confirmation email within two business days, please email us at Public.Engagement@uscis.dhs.gov.

We look forward to engaging with you!
