AILA Global Migration Section
International Lawyer List

This International Lawyer List contains details of licensed attorneys, advocates, solicitors or barristers who state they are qualified to practice immigration law for jurisdictions other than the United States and are licensed as either an attorney, advocate, solicitor or barrister in that jurisdiction. The practitioners detailed are all full AILA members or International Associates and, at the time of list compilation, provided AILA with evidence of their certification for each of the jurisdictions in which they are listed. The practitioners have indicated as part of their inclusion in this list that they are available to answer questions and accept referrals from AILA members. This list is available to all AILA Global Migration Section members.
