transcript included. You will also have an opportunity to review the ROP. Objectively look at this case, and provide me by April 7, 2011, your response regarding your handling of the case and what corrective action(s), if any, you will personally take as an immigration judge. [redacted] speak Spanish, and the conclusions that he was removable and understood all of his rights based upon the group's tacit admissions. Consider whether it might have been possible to create a better record had his appeal gone forward, rather than been withdrawn. Feel free to call me if you would like to discuss this. Thanks.
