Hurricane Maria - St. Thomas ASC:

AILA Doc. No. 18011632. (Posted 1/17/18)

If you did not attend your biometrics appointment due to Hurricane Maria, we will automatically reschedule your appointment. The St. Thomas Application Support Center (ASC) has begun scheduling appointments for the last week of January 2018. We will send appointment notices in the order they were canceled, starting with appointments originally scheduled for Sept. 1, 2017. If you do not receive a new appointment by mail within 90 days, please call 800-375-5283.

If you have an emergency and cannot wait for a new appointment notice by mail, please call 800-375-5283 or visit the ASC as a walk-in. However, we cannot guarantee walk-in applicants will be processed on the same day, so you may have to return again on another day.

If you cannot receive mail at your location and wish to be processed at a different location, please call 800-375-5283 or take your current appointment notice to another ASC. If you do not have a copy of your current appointment notice, any ASC can print one for you.

Rescheduling Appointments at Field Offices, International Offices and Application Support Centers

The following charts provide guidance on rescheduling when your field office, application support center (ASC) or other office has schedule changes. You should also check for more specific information about your office's or ASC's rescheduling policy by searching for your specific field office.

If inclement weather hinders your ability to appear at a USCIS office for an interview or appointment when that office is open, we may consider rescheduling your interview or appointment if you can show that your failure to appear was weather-related.
