Controlling Documents and Travel for Foreign Nationals: A Conversation with Customs and Border Protection and the Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman's Office

June 19, 2012 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. EDT

Please join the Ombudsman's Office and Customs and Border Protection (CBP) for a public webinar on controlling documents for foreign nationals living in the United States. The Ombudsman's Office will interview a representative from U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to share information about how foreign nationals can best prepare for travel abroad and what to expect upon return to the United States including details about primary and secondary processing, the traveler's rights and responsibilities, and which documents control one's status. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions at the end of the webinar.

Please register for the webinar online. If you are no longer able to participate in the webinar, please cancel your participation here. Please note that participation in the webinar is not anonymous.

If you would like to participate anonymously in the teleconference portion only, RSVP to cisombudsman.publicaffairs@dhs.gov and reference "Controlling Document Teleconference Only" in the subject line of your email.

Comments, questions, materials, or suggestions regarding this topic should be directed via email to the Ombudsman's Office at cisombudsman.publicaffairs@dhs.gov.
