

USCIS Office of Public Engagement: Invitation to the President's Council on Jobs and Competitiveness Listening and Action Session

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services sent this bulletin at 08/01/2011 09:04 PM EDT Dear Stakeholder -

The President's Council on Jobs and Competitiveness invites any interested parties to participate in a Jobs and Competitiveness Listening and Action Session on Tuesday, August 2, 2011 at 1:00 PM Eastern (10:00 AM Pacific). This is one in a series of engagements to solicit input from business leaders on how the public and private sectors can partner to create opportunity and job creation. During the session, Jobs Council members, administration officials, and other business leaders and entrepreneurs will discuss ways to continue to incent and catalyze high growth entrepreneurship and innovation.

In addition, the Administration will be making an announcement tomorrow that outlines a series of efforts designed to realize the full potential of our immigration laws to attract the best and brightest from around the world and encourage them to invest their talents, skills and ideas to grow our economy and create American jobs.

To join the engagement, please visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov and click on the banner invitation. You can also submit questions for panelists in real-time through the White House Live Facebook application.

Kind regards,

Office of Public Engagement
