GET THE MOST OUT OF AILA'S WEBSITE (AILA.ORG)

AILA's website is often cited as the #1 member benefit and includes powerful tools to help you find, annotate, and keep track of your research within the InfoNet Research Library of over 35,000 substantive immigration documents. Knowing how to find what you are looking for and how to maximize the various AILA member benefits available via the website will assist you in your practice and your legal research.

TRAINING WILL COVER:

- General Overview of AILA.org and Its Contents
- In-Depth Review of Quick Links and How to Use AILA Member Benefits
- How to Find Local Chapter Information
- Joining an AILA Section
- Making Sure You Are Getting the Most out of the NMD
- Advanced Searching on AILA.org and Using My Research
- Q&As

OPTIONS FOR SETTING UP A TRAINING:

- Schedule a one-on-one webinar training to learn about member benefits and basic searching; can tailor to individual needs (lasts approximately one hour).
- Schedule a group webinar training for an office or small group of people (lasts approximately one hour).
- Schedule an in-person chapter training at an upcoming chapter conference or meeting.

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT FASTCASE?

All AILA members have free access to Fastcase, a database that includes all federal court decisions and BIA precedent decisions since volume 8 (1958). Fastcase offers powerful searching and sorting tools and a service called Authority Check that helps you determine whether that case you just found is still good law. Take a look at Fastcase's great library of training options to learn more.

NEED A HOLISTIC APPROACH TO LEGAL RESEARCH?

Great for chapter events or for new members, this training covers how to take advantage of AILA's wide variety of member benefits across all of AILA's online properties. The training will include an overview of AILA member benefits, as well as how to solve case problems using AILA member benefits and how to perform searching using the InfoNet Research Library. Examples of the types of questions that would be covered include:

- How to Find Basic Member Benefits on AILA's Website
- Getting Started with Basic Legal Research (including an explanation of how AILA's online properties differ; will go over the basic structure of AILA.org, Fastcase, and AILALink, and why each property should be used)
- How to Find Decisions Using AILA Products (AILA.org, Fastcase, and AILALink)
- Solving a Case-Specific Problem
- How to Resolve a State-Specific Issue
- Using Your Chapter to Resolve Local Issues
