Office of the Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman’s Annual Conference
Postponement Announcement

Dear Stakeholder,

The Office of the Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman (Ombudsman’s Office) will postpone the Ombudsman’s 9th Annual Conference, which was calendared for Friday, November 22. As you may know, the FY 2020 Budget Continuing Resolution is set to expire after midnight on Thursday, November 21. In an abundance of caution, to avoid any potential disruption to the Ombudsman’s Office and to stakeholders intending to travel to the Conference, this important event will be re-calendared in 2020. The Ombudsman’s Office will send an update once we are able to secure another date.

Thank you for your continuing interest in the work of the Ombudsman's Office to improve immigration benefits delivery.

Sincerely,

Office of the Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman
