Dear Mr. Boyd,

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) in which you seek documents related to the Attorney General’s decision in Matter of A-B.

Responsive documents are enclosed. Portions of the enclosed documents have been redacted in accordance with 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) to avoid a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and/or 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) to protect privileged information. The reason for redaction is clearly marked on each redacted portion. There will be no charge for the enclosed documents.

As additional documents contain equities involving the Office of the Attorney General and/or Offices under the Attorney General, those documents have been referred to the Office of Information Policy for review and direct response to you. You should receive separate correspondence from the Office of Information Policy regarding these documents.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV 2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. See http://www.justice.gov/oip/foiapost/2012foiapost9.html.

You may contact our FOIA Public Liaison at the telephone number 703-605-1297 for any further assistance and to discuss any aspect of your request. Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, Room 2510, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001,

If you are not satisfied with my response to this request, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: https://www.foiaonline.gov/foiaonline/action/public/home. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.”

Sincerely,

Joseph Schaaf
