<sup>1</sup> Material support "includes, but is not limited to: a safe house, transportation, communications, funds, transfer of funds or other material financial benefit, false documentation or identification, weapons (including chemical, biological, or radiological weapons), explosives, or training." INA § 212(a)(3)(B)(iv)(VI).

V. Adjudicator's Decision

☐ Exemption GRANTED; Material support provided to one of eight groups, or under duress to a Tier III group and a totality of the circumstances justifies favorable use of discretion

☐ Exemption PREVIOUSLY GRANTED; No new information

☐ Exemption NOT GRANTED

☐ Threshold requirements not met (refer or deny)

Explain:

☐ Exemption available, but totality of the circumstances does not merit favorable use of discretion (refer or deny AFTER concurrence from required reviewers)

Explain:

☐ Exemption not available

☐ Support provided to a designated (Tier I or Tier II) organization; Name:

☐ NOT UNDER DURESS (refer or deny AFTER concurrence from required reviewers)

☐ Support provided to a Tier III organization, other than the groups enumerated above, not under duress (refer or deny AFTER concurrence from required reviewers);
