

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

UPDATED: Some Offices Remain Closed from Storm Damage

All applicants appointments will be rescheduled to the next available appointment date; applicants do not need to do anything to request a rescheduled date. However walk-ins will be processed on a case-by-case basis.

Applicants that were scheduled to appear at an ASC that was closed on October 29, October 30, October 31, November 1, November 2, November 5, or November 6 will be rescheduled. If you are an applicant that was processed at an ASC after your previously scheduled date of October 29, October 30, October 31, November 1, November 2, November 2, November 5, or November 6 you do not need to report to the ASC for a second time and can disregard this rescheduling appointment.

If you are scheduled to appear at an ASC that continues to be closed, please refer to the list of office closures on the USCIS public site and continue to monitor for updates on rescheduling of these appointments.

If you plan to visit a USCIS office in an area affected by the severe weather or you believe may be affected by severe weather, please call the

to ensure the office is open for business and for further instructions on rescheduling your appointment if the office is closed. Please continue to monitor this page for changes.
