Page 1, What Is the Purpose of This Form?	The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has designated Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative, as the form on which attorneys and accredited representatives provide information to establish their eligibility to appear and act on behalf of an applicant, petitioner, or respondent. An attorney or accredited representative appearing before DHS must file Form G-28 in each case. Form G-28 must be properly completed and signed by the applicant, petitioner, or respondent for the appearance of their attorney or accredited representative to be recognized by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and/or U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Under 8 CFR 103.2(a)(3), a beneficiary of a petition is not a recognized party in a proceeding before USCIS. Form G-28 will be recognized by USCIS, CBP, and/or ICE until the conclusion of the matter for which it is entered. As always, an applicant, petitioner, or respondent must file a new Form G-28 with the Administrative Appeals Office when filing an appeal to that office on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion.	The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has designated this form as the form on which attorneys and accredited representatives provide information to establish their eligibility to appear for and act on behalf of an applicant, petitioner, or respondent in immigration matters. An attorney or accredited representative appearing before DHS must file Form G-28 in each case. U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP), and U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) will only recognize Form-G-28 for the appearance of an attorney or accredited representative once the applicant, petitioner, or respondent has completed, signed, and filed a Form G-28. Do not file this form on a matter before the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) instead file Form EOIR-27 for representation. Under 8 CFR 103.2(a)(3) a beneficiary of a petition is not a recognized party in a proceeding before USCIS, therefore this form does not apply to a beneficiary or their attorney. USCIS, CBP, and ICE will recognize Form G-28 until the conclusion of the matter for which it is entered, unless otherwise notified. A representative for an applicant, petitioner, or respondent must file a new Form G-28 with the
