FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Rebecca Wenglinski
Kerr Russell
rwenglinski@kerr-russell.com
313-963-7090

Miroslava Orduño Rincón Recognized as Notable Woman in Law 2019

Detroit, MI (October 28, 2019) – Crain’s Detroit Business released their list of the Notable Women in Law 2019. Miroslava was selected for her career accomplishments, track record of success in the field, contributions to the community and mentorship of others. She is recognized along with 21 other regional attorneys.

Miroslava Orduño Rincón equally prizes corporate clients and those in need of pro bono legal services. She volunteers with the Michigan Immigrant Rights Center and is a member of the American Bar Association and Hispanic Bar Association of Michigan.

For Kerr Russell, Orduño Rincón assists employers with immigration issues, including the international movement of personnel, family immigration, outbound business visitors and the immigration of physicians educated in the U.S. She also educates employers, community groups and students regarding immigration law and related compliance issues.

Orduño Rincón manages the immigration-related considerations for foreign nationals employed by automotive OEMs and aerospace clients. She provided extensive immigration-related assistance to a client that was acquiring a company’s operations for $1.6 billion and another client involved in a $6.5 billion spin-off.

“Miroslava is a dedicated professional that considers every angle and addresses multiple viewpoints for every immigration puzzle I bring to her,” said Emily Rosenzweig, human resources manager for Global Mobility (Americas) at Joyson Safety Systems.

For more information about Crain's Detroit Business Notable Women in Law, go to www.crainsdetroit.com/awards/notable-women-law.

About Kerr Russell:
Kerr Russell is proud of Detroit. They’re also proud to be one of Detroit’s oldest law firms having been here since 1874. Kerr Russell is driven to deliver results and make a difference. They take on their clients’ perspectives to improve their clients’ lives and businesses. Kerr Russell’s legal solutions are prompt, accurate, economical, and focused on their clients’ needs in almost every area of the legal profession, including business law, labor and employment, immigration, mergers and acquisitions, cybersecurity and data privacy, real estate and construction, health care, medical malpractice, tax, contract negotiation, restructuring, automotive, manufacturing, and commercial litigation.

Whereas many lawyers merely interpret the law, Kerr Russell attorneys help make it. They’ve played a role in some of the most significant legal developments in state business and health care law, and their trial lawyers have been involved in many notable commercial cases in Michigan and other jurisdictions. In business and legal circles, Kerr Russell is respected for their high standards, quality work, and professional ethics and integrity. For 145 years, Detroit has been Kerr Russell’s home. Detroit will always be Kerr Russell’s home.

###