Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative and Form I-130A, Supplemental Information for Spouse Beneficiary
OMB No. 1615-0012
10/15/2015

Reason for Revision:

- U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) has stopped issuing paper I-94 Arrival-Departure Records, except in limited circumstances, and will create an electronic record. The Form I-94 data will be available to entrants who have access to the internet to obtain their admission number and electronic I-94 record from the CBP Website at www.cbp.gov. Additional data collection fields are being incorporated into several USCIS forms to enable verification of status in the United States based upon passport or travel document details captured by CBP at the port of entry, rather than the I-94.
- ELIS Account Number data collections have been added for the petitioner, the beneficiary, and an attorney (if applicable), as well as any updates to the standard language since this form was last revised.

Format	2 column format  Many individual headings.	Full page format, with standardized language in several sections.  Standardized section headings have been added, and the paragraphs/sub sections of information have been organized under each respective heading, to make it easier for our customers to find information. Some sections have been switched around from the current version, but all information in the current version is in the revised version. The word “application” was revised to read “petition,” and the words husband/wife were revised to read “spouse” throughout the instructions. Some numbers have been revised to be lower case.
