Conditions for routine notifications of repatriations of Mexican nationals

Consistent with Sections 6, 7 and 8 of this Arrangement, the DHS Participants should take into consideration the following conditions for routine notifications of repatriations of Mexican nationals:

1. All notifications for all returns through all ports of entry should be done at least thirty (30) minutes prior to repatriation through telephone, fax or e-mail to the applicable authorities at the ports of entry of repatriation.
2. Before or during the repatriation, the DHS Participants should provide INM a list of the persons to be repatriated from a single office on a single event, which should be stamped as acknowledgement and proof of formal reception by Mexican nationals. The lists should contain the basic information included in DHS form I-216.

3. When individuals who have been convicted of criminal offenses are being repatriated through formal immigration proceedings, the aforementioned list should also include, whenever possible, the following information: alias, registration number, type of removal, conviction(s), date of conviction(s), and time served.
4. The repatriation of known fugitives wanted by the Government of Mexico should be done separately from the repatriation of other Mexican nationals. These procedures should be consistent with the specific procedures that both Federal governments (Washington D.C. and Mexico City) establish.
5. If a group larger than fifty-five (55) persons is to be repatriated, the DHS Participants should notify INM at least one (1) hour before, to ensure that the appropriate number of Officers is available to reduce the period of delivery and reception of the repatriated Mexican nationals.
6. Mexican nationals to be repatriated directly from the interior of the U.S. should be exclusively delivered through San Ysidro/Tijuana or Calexico/Mexicali ports of entry.
7. Consistent with interior arrangements at originating locations, the Consulates in the interior should receive from DHS Participants lists of Mexican nationals being repatriated and the Consulates in turn should notify appropriate INM offices at the border.
8. The signatory participants should take all feasible steps to ensure that property, valuables, and money retained, are available for return to the rightful owner at the time of initial release from DHS custody.
9. Any exception to the established schedule should be properly coordinated with the appropriate authorities. Exceptions may be made for:
 - Assisting a vulnerable person
 - Law enforcement need
 - Operational tempo

DHS Participants should make every effort to notify INM a minimum of thirty (30) minutes prior to repatriating due to exceptions.

In addition to the conditions identified in Attachment 2 about Ports and Schedules of Repatriation of persons with special needs, and consistent with Section 12 of this Arrangement, the DHS Participants should consider the following:

When applicable within each category below, the DHS Participants and the Consulate should make every effort to obtain the appropriate medical records and all information about the individual, including any contact information about any known family member of the person.

4.1 Repatriation of unaccompanied minors

- The Consulate General in San Diego or the Consulate in Calexico should be notified to interview the minors.
- Interviews of unaccompanied minors at the San Ysidro Port of Entry should be held daily from 8:00AM to 3:00PM with two deliveries at 11:00AM and 3:00PM.
- Interviews of unaccompanied minors at the Calexico Port of Entry should be held daily from 8:00AM to 4:00PM.
- Interviews should be done personally, telephonically or through the videoconference system. Consular staff should accompany unaccompanied minors during repatriation.
- Additional interviews should be conducted when a group of at least five (5) unaccompanied minors is ready to be repatriated.
- DHS Participants should advise the Consulate General in San Diego or the Consulate in Calexico if the unaccompanied minor has known immigration or criminal history.

4.2 Repatriation of Mexican nationals with special medical needs

The repatriation of Mexican nationals that require follow up medical treatment should not take place until the necessary arrangements with the family or medical institution receiving the person with special medical needs are made by the Mexican participants.

- The repatriation should take place as early as possible.
- If a special device (crutches, wheelchair, walker, etc.) is needed to facilitate the mobilization and repatriation of an individual, the device should be supplied by the medical center in which the individuals received care. Otherwise, the DHS Participants should allow the Consulate General a reasonable amount of time to provide the device.

4.3 Repatriation of mentally incapacitated persons and persons with communicable diseases

- The Consulate should be notified as soon as possible of the intended removal of a mentally incapacitated person and persons with communicable diseases, and the repatriation should take place as soon as possible after the notification.
- The repatriation should take place as soon as possible, keeping in mind that the Centro de Salud Mental A.C. in Tijuana only receives persons with these conditions until 7:00 pm.

The Safe and Humane Treatment and Repatriation Of Unaccompanied Mexican Children

- 1) For the DHS personnel, all interactions between CBP and ICE personnel and unaccompanied Mexican children, including but not limited to those areas or actions identified in this Local Repatriation Arrangements and all addenda, are to be consistent with and in accordance with all provisions of the William Wilberforce Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act of 2008; similarly the interactions of Mexican officers with Mexican children including but not limited to those areas or actions identified in this Local Repatriation Arrangements and all addenda, are to be conducted in accordance with any applicable domestic and international norms and through the application of the Consular Protection Protocol for Unaccompanied Migrant Children and Adolescents.
- 2) The U.S.-Mexico Local Repatriation Arrangements are to be the guiding framework for the safe and humane treatment and repatriation of unaccompanied Mexican children.
- 3) Repatriations of Unaccompanied Mexican Children are to be conducted in a manner consistent with the Local Repatriation Arrangement for the area through which unaccompanied Mexican children are returned, consistent with the times and location outlined in Attachment 2 of the Local Repatriation Agreements, and to appropriate Mexican government officials. In cases where the best interest of an individual child requires deviation from the Local Repatriation Arrangement, such actions are to be taken only with the coordination and concurrence of the competent U.S. and Mexican officials.

- 4) DHS personnel must determine whether an unaccompanied child encountered at a land border or port of entry is capable of making an independent decision and screen appropriately for signs victimization of a severe form of trafficking, risk of trafficking upon return, and fear of return due to a credible fear of persecution.
- 5) If DHS personnel determine that an unaccompanied Mexican child has been, a victim of a severe form of trafficking, is at risk of being trafficked upon return or is afraid to return to Mexico because of a credible fear of persecution, or that he or she is not able to make an independent decision to withdraw his or her application for admission to the United States, DHS personnel are to:
 - a. Engage in established protection processes and procedures available under U.S. law including in removal proceedings before an immigration judge;
 - b. Notify and provide consular access to unaccompanied Mexican children consistent with existing arrangements, agreements and legal obligations.
- 6) Mexican Consular and Immigration officials are to duly coordinate with CBP and ICE through established local relationships, and among relevant Mexican agencies or groups, regarding the safe and humane treatment of and/or return of unaccompanied Mexican children being repatriated, including appropriate intervention with unaccompanied Mexican children.
- 7) In cases where the application of the Consular Protection Protocol for Unaccompanied Migrant Children and Adolescents by Mexican officials results in the identification of potential victims of a severe form of trafficking or subjects that claim a fear of return due to a credible fear of persecution, all applicable information is to be provided to DHS in order to evaluate any potential further protective actions.
- 8) DHS and Mexican officers, agents, and personnel who have substantive contact with unaccompanied Mexican children are to receive appropriate training on the implementation of these repatriation arrangements, including on identifying children who are victims of a severe form of trafficking and children for whom asylum, special immigrant relief, and/or other government or group support that may be appropriate; additionally, the Government of Mexico intends to share with DHS the Consular Protection Protocol for Unaccompanied Migrant Children and Adolescents, including best practices in interviewing unaccompanied minors.
- 9) In order to safeguard unaccompanied children who are nationals of third countries, both DHS and Mexican agencies aver their respective and collective intent to intervene with all appropriate measures at the earliest point possible, consistent with their respective legal frameworks and international commitments, and in harmony with the principles outlined in the Managua Extraordinary Declaration issued by Vice Ministers and the Heads of Delegation of the Member Countries of the XIX Regional Conference on Migration held in Managua, Nicaragua in June 2014.
- 10) Concerns with implementation of this addendum should be addressed locally, with issues being elevated to the Repatriation Technical Working Group when resolution at a lower level is not possible.
