4. Prediction of Capital Investment Impact Through New Commercial Enterprises.

Provide a general prediction which addresses the prospective economic impact, regionally or nationally, of the proposed new commercial enterprises sponsored by the regional center. Address the prospect for increases in household earnings: demand for business services, utilities, and maintenance and repair; and construction both inside and outside the regional center. Also, using the NAICS codes, present an economic analysis that relies on economically or statistically valid forecasting tools to show how jobs will be created for each industrial category of economic activity (for example, manufacturing, food production/processing, warehousing, tourism and hospitality, transportation, power generation, and agriculture.)

5. Methodology to Track Capital Investment. The application must be supported by a statement from the principal of the regional center that explains the methodologies that the regional center will use to track the infusion of each EB-5 investor's capital into each new commercial enterprise and any related job creating entities. The statement must also explain how the regional center will allocate the jobs created through the EB-5 investments in the new commercial enterprise and/or jobcreating entities to each associated EB-5 investor.

Decision. The decision on Form I-924 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the requested designation, or an amendment to a previously approved designation. You will be notified of the decision in writing.

Approval. If you have established that you qualify for Regional Center designation, or a designation amendment, then the application will be approved. The approval notice will provide information as to your responsibilities and obligations as a USCIS-designated regional center, and the evidence to submit in support of regional centeraffiliated individual EB-5 petitions with USCIS, as well as details on the reporting and oversight requirements for Regional Centers.

Denial. If you have not established that you qualify for the benefit sought, the application will be denied. You will be notified in writing of the reasons for the denial, and of the regional center's right to appeal the decision to deny the application to the Administrative Appeals Office as specified in 8 CFR 103.3.

NOTE: Beginning with the fiscal year following approval, each designated Regional Center entity must file the Form I-924A Supplement for each fiscal year (October 1 through September 30) within 90 days after the end of the fiscal year (on or before December 29) of the calendar year in which the fiscal year ended.

Designated Regional Centers must notify USCIS within 30 days of a change of address, contact information, regional center principal(s), contracting agents or similar changes in the ### checks.
