If you need extra space to complete any item within this form, use the space provided in Part 12. Additional Information About Your Registration for Classification as Refugee Continuation Sheet. Type or print the registrant's name and Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any) and Case Number (if any) at the top of each continuation sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which the answer refers. 3. Answer all questions fully and accurately. If a question does not apply to you (for example, if you have never been married and the question asks, "Provide the name of your current spouse"), type or print "N/A," unless otherwise directed. If your answer to a question which requires a numeric response is zero or none (for example, "How many children do you have" or "How many times have you departed the United States"), type or print "None," unless otherwise directed. 4. If you do not completely fill out this form or fail to submit required documents listed in the Instructions and your biometrics, if required, processing of your request will be delayed, and USCIS may reject, close, or deny your form.

4. Each application must be properly signed. A photocopy of a signed form or a typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

5. Signature. Each form must be properly signed. For all signatures on this form, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the form on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

6. Biometrics. You may be required, if you are 13 1/2 years of age or older to provide fingerprints, photograph, and/or additional signature to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records. You will be informed in writing when and where you need to attend a biometric services appointment. If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may reject, close, or deny your form.

7. Requests for More Information. We may request that you provide more information or evidence to support your form. You may submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of your form. If you submit original documents when not required, the documents may be destroyed or remain a part of the record, and USCIS will not automatically return them to you.

8. Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must include the translator's signature. DHS recommends the certification contain the translator's printed name and the date and the translator's contact information. Translations prepared and signed by a Resettlement Support Center employee working for the U.S. Department of State or under contract will be considered

	Submission of Form - The Resettlement Support Center (RSC) with jurisdiction in the registrant's region shall assist the registrant in the completion and submission of Form I-590, Registration for Classification as Refugee. Registration - A separate Form I-590 is required for each registrant. Form I-590 on behalf of a child under 14 years of age may be submitted by the parent or guardian.	as complete and accurate. [No change] [No change]
