PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the following statement is true and correct:

On April 27, 2018, Border Patrol Agent J. Renteria, was performing his assigned duties in the Imperial Beach Border Patrol Station's area of responsibility. At approximately 9:05 PM, Agent Renteria observed eighteen subjects walking northbound from the United States/Mexico Primary International Boundary near an area known to Border Patrol agents as "Goat Canyon." Agent Renteria responded to the location and upon his arrival all of the subjects stopped. This area is approximately four miles west of the San Ysidro, California Port of Entry and approximately 50 yards north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary. Agent Renteria identified himself as a Border Patrol agent and conducted an immigration inspection. One of the eighteen subjects, later identified as the defendant, Eric Alberto LOPEZ-Robles, admitted to being citizen of Mexico. Three of the other subjects admitted to being citizens of India, one admitted to being a citizen of Guatemala and the remaining thirteen subjects admitted to being a citizens of Honduras. All of the subjects stated that they were not in possession of immigration documents allowing them to enter or remain in the United States legally. On April 27, 2018 at approximately 9:10 PM, Agent Renteria placed all of the subjects, including LOPEZ, under arrest. During administrative processing, LOPEZ stated he entered the United States on April 27, 2018.

Executed on April 28, 2018 at 2:00 PM.

David J. Weber
Border Patrol Agent

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of one page, I find probable cause to believe that the defendant named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on April 27, 2018, in violation of 8 USC 1325.
