Instructional Text

You should use Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (N-336) to request a hearing before an immigration officer on the denial of your Application for Naturalization (N-400).

You should file your request for a hearing (N-336) within 30 calendar days of receiving the denial of your Application for Naturalization (N-400).

USCIS will reject ~~(not accept)~~ a request that is not timely filed. USCIS will not refund the filing fee if Form N-336 is rejected because it was not timely filed. ~~If, however, your request for a hearing is not timely filed, but it meets the requirements for a motion to reopen or motion to reconsider, USCIS will issue a decision in your case.~~ However, if you do not timely file your request for a hearing, but it meets the requirements for a motion to reopen or motion to reconsider, USCIS will reopen or reconsider your case and send you a decision.

You are eligible to submit a request if you believe USCIS incorrectly denied your Application for Naturalization (N-400) and you want to request a hearing with an immigration officer.

Members of the U.S. Armed Forces currently cannot file this request online. If you are a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, you will need to submit the paper version of this form.

Fee: $700

The filing fee is not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this request.

~~You do not need to include a biometric services fee at the time you submit your request. If you are later notified that you must submit biometrics, you will receive a biometric services appointment notice with instructions on how to submit the additional biometric services fee. If you receive a notice to appear for a biometric services appointment, you may also be required to pay the $85 biometric services fee.~~

If you are applying for a fee waiver, you cannot submit your request online and will need to file a paper form instead.

Submitting your form online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.

Before starting the Request for a Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings (N-336), you may want to gather any documents that support your request.

You may submit any additional documents or briefs to support your request for a hearing when you file your request online or you may bring them with you to your hearing.

After you submit your form, you can track its status through your USCIS account. Sign into your account often to check on your case status and read any important messages from USCIS.

If we need more information from you, we will send you a Request for Evidence (RFE) or Request for Information (RFI). You can respond to our request and upload your documents through your USCIS account.

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form.

We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. We will save your information for 30 days from today, or from the last time you worked on your form.

After you start your form, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.
