Rescheduling Appointments at Field Offices, International Offices and Application Support Centers

The following charts provide guidance on rescheduling when your field office, application support center (ASC) or other office has schedule changes. You should also check for more specific information about your office's or ASC's rescheduling policy by searching for your specific field office.

If inclement weather hinders your ability to appear at a USCIS office for an interview or appointment when that office is open, we may consider rescheduling your interview or appointment if you can show that your failure to appear was weather-related.

Field Offices, International Offices and Other Offices

If you	Then
Are scheduled for an interview and the USCIS office it is scheduled at is closed	USCIS will automatically reschedule as soon as possible.
Scheduled an InfoPass or other appointment and the USCIS office it is scheduled at is closed	You must reschedule a new appointment on your own as soon as possible.

Application Support Centers (ASC)

If you	Then	Additional Information
Have a USCIS biometrics services appointment and your ASC opens late, closes early, or closes for an entire day due to an unforeseen circumstance such as inclement weather or a power outage	We will automatically reschedule your appointment as soon as possible.	We will mail a new ASC appointment notice to you. If you do not receive an appointment notice within three weeks, contact us at 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833). If you are unable to wait for your new appointment notice by mail, you may still visit an ASC. However, the ASC may not be able to process you due to high case volumes. You may experience long wait times, or you may have to return on another date.

If you	Then	Additional Information
Need to reschedule your USCIS biometrics services appointment for good cause before your scheduled appointment date	You must follow the instructions on the biometrics appointment notice	To reschedule your appointment, please make a copy of your appointment notice for your records, then mail only the original appointment notice to: Biometrics Processing Unit (BPU) Alexandria ASC 8850 Richmond Hwy, Suite 100 Alexandria, VA 22309-1586 Do not mail any other document with your original appointment notice. We will review your request and, if appropriate, will mail a new ASC appointment notice to the address listed on your original appointment notice. If you need to change your address, please follow the instructions provided on our website. The BPU cannot process any change of address requests. If you are unable to wait for your new appointment notice by mail, you may still visit an ASC. However, the ASC may not be able to process you due to high case volumes. You may experience long wait times, or you may have to return on another date.

Appointments at the Honolulu ASC

For biometric appointments scheduled at the Honolulu ASC, you may appear for your appointment on your scheduled date or as a walk-in before your scheduled date. Please note that if you come as a walk-in, you may experience long wait times or the ASC may not be able to process you due to high case volumes, in which case you will have to return on another date and time. If you cannot appear for your appointment by the scheduled date, follow the instructions on the appointment notice to reschedule your appointment.
