

Request for Fee Waiver
Department of Homeland Security
U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

USCIS
Form I-912
OMB No. 1615-0116
Expires 03/31/2020

What Is the Purpose of Form I-912?

Form I-912 is used to request a fee waiver for eligible immigration benefit applications and petitions. You may request a fee waiver if your documented annual household income is at or below 150 percent of the Federal Poverty Guidelines (FPG) or if you can demonstrate financial hardship including, but not limited to, medical expenses of family members, unemployment, eviction, victimization, and homelessness.

You can find the list of applications and petitions that are eligible for a fee waiver at www.uscis.gov/I-912 or refer to 8 CFR 103.7(c)(3). For filing tips and additional information, see www.uscis.gov/I-912.

To request a fee waiver, you must submit Form I-912 and provide the supporting documentation. A letter stating you are unable to pay the filing fees or biometric services fees will not be accepted without a completed Form I-912 and supporting documentation.

You do not need to file Form I-912 for applications and petitions that do not require a filing fee. Other USCIS applications and petitions have fee exemption requirements for certain types of applicants and petitioners. In these cases, the USCIS form and instructions will outline the fee exemption and submission requirements if a separate Form I-912 is not required.

1. You;
2. The head of your household (if not you). If the child is applying individually, provide the information of the primary custodial parent;
 - A. You are the head of household if you filed the most recent Federal tax return for your household (includes filing as head of household) or earned the majority of the income for your household.
 - B. If you are not the head of household, the head of household is the person who filed the most recent Federal tax return on which you are listed as a dependent or the person who provides the majority of your household's income. If you already have or are applying for Special Immigrant Juvenile (SIJ) classification, do not include any foster or group home household members.
3. Your spouse, if living with you (do not include your spouse if you are separated, your spouse is not living with you, or you already have or are applying for VAWA benefits or T or U nonimmigrant status); or

Your Annual Household Income

Item Numbers 5. - 7. Tax Return Filing. Identify whether you and your household member(s) filed a tax return last year.

If you are filing Form I-912 between January 1 and April 15 of any year, and you and/or your household members have not yet filed the current year's federal income tax return, submit IRS transcripts for the most recent tax year. Submit any tax transcripts that you or your household members filed with any foreign government if you or your household members were residing outside of the United States during any time within the last tax year and you were not required to file a federal individual income tax return with the United States government.

If you are a child (under the age of 21 and unmarried) and are listed as a dependent on your parents' income tax return, or if you are listed as a dependent on anyone else's income tax return, list the total income from that individual's most recent tax return within the last tax year and submit that individual's IRS tax transcripts.

If you are listed as a dependent on an income tax return, and you are applying for any immigration benefits (such as for adjustment of status) based on a pending or approved petition or application for VAWA benefits or T or U nonimmigrant status based on abuse from your spouse, parent, or adult child, do not include his/her income.

Item Number 8. Your Annual Income. Provide information on your annual income. From your filed Federal tax return, enter the amount from Line 37 (adjusted gross income) on Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. If you have not filed a Federal income tax return but you have an IRS Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, that covers the previous 12-month period, take your total wages, tips, and other compensation reported in Box 1, and enter that amount as your household's annual wage income.

Documentation. For information on obtaining federal income tax transcripts without a fee, see www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript. You may also use IRS Form 4506-T to request income tax transcripts, or Form 1099 Certain Government Payments from the IRS. If you reside and filed tax returns in a U.S. territory, submit the tax return transcript from the territory instead of a federal tax return transcript.

To document your annual income, provide the following information:

1. A transcript of your most recent Federal tax return from the IRS. You are not required to have the IRS certify the transcript or photocopy, but USCIS may later request a certified copy;
2. If you filed a Federal tax return, and you have recently changed employment or had a change in salary, submit your Federal tax return transcript and copies of consecutive pay statements (stubs) for at least the past month. Pay statements (stubs) alone are not sufficient evidence;

4. If you did not file a Federal tax return, submit a recent Form W-2, Form SSA-1099 (if Social Security is the only income received), or the most recent Social Security Statement indicating your earning record;
5. If you are a student and not living with your parents or are not claimed as a dependent on your parents' Federal tax return, do not include your parents' incomes. You should only provide proof of your income or documentation that shows you are not required to file a Federal or state tax return transcript, such as proof that you are a full-time student;
6. If you do not have any income, or cannot provide proof of your income, describe your particular situation in detail in Part 3., Item Number 12., and submit documentation from the IRS that indicates no tax transcripts and no W-2s were found (see IRS Form 4506-T).
7. If you are homeless, submit documentation from the IRS that indicates no tax transcripts and no W-2s were found (see IRS Form 4506-T). If you are homeless and receiving support services, submit an affidavit from a religious institution, non-profit, or community-based organization verifying that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from that entity and attesting to your financial situation.
8. If you already have or are applying for VAWA benefits or T or U nonimmigrant status, and due to your victimization, you do not have any income or cannot provide proof of income as required in the paragraph above, describe your situation in sufficient detail in Part 3. Item Number 12. to substantiate your inability to pay as well as your inability to obtain the required documentation. Additionally, provide any available documentation of your income, such as pay stubs or affidavits from religious institutions, non-profits, or other community-based organizations verifying that you are currently receiving some benefit or support from that entity and attesting to your financial situation.
9. If you are filing Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, based on SIJ classification, you must submit evidence that you were approved or filed for SIJ classification (for example, Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant,; or a copy of Form I-797, Notice of Action, for Form I-360). If you are applying for adjustment of status or filing related forms based on SIJ classification, you are not required to complete Part 2. of Form I-912 or to show proof of income to request a fee waiver.

Item Number 9. Annual Income of All Family Household Members. Provide the annual income from all family members counted as part of your household.

1. If a person lives with you but does not contribute financial support to your household, then you should not include this person's income when calculating your household income.
2. If you are separated or still married but do not live with your spouse, do not include your spouse's income. However, you must include any financial support your spouse provides to your household in Item Number 10.
3. If you are applying for any immigration benefits (such as for adjustment of status) based on a pending or approved petition or application for VAWA benefits T or U nonimmigrant status, do not provide your spouse's income.
4. Include your parents' income if you are a full-time student, 21 to 23 years old, are unmarried, and are living with your parents, or if you are claimed as a dependent on your parents' Federal tax return. You must provide a transcript of both parents' Federal tax returns and a transcript of your own Federal tax return, or provide proof of income as supporting documentation.
5. If members of your household are recently unemployed, describe the particular situation in Part 2., Item Number 12.

Documentation. For information on obtaining federal income tax transcripts without a fee, see www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript. You may also use IRS Form 4506-T to request income tax transcripts, or Form 1099 Certain Government Payments from the IRS.

If a household member is unemployed and receiving unemployment compensation also submit a copy of his or her IRS Form 1099-G. If he or she is not receiving unemployment compensation submit, a letter of termination from the employer.

3. If the household member did not file a Federal tax return, submit a recent Form W-2, Form SSA-1099 (if Social Security is the only income received), or the most recent Social Security Statement indicating his or her earning record.
4. If any of the household members do not have any income, describe his or her particular situation in Part 3., Item Number 12., and submit documentation from IRS that indicates no tax transcripts and no W-2s were found (see IRS Form 4506T).

Item Number 10. Total Additional Income or Financial Support. If you received additional income on a continuing monthly basis for the most recent full year (for example, child support) and it was NOT listed in your tax return, provide the amount of additional annual income. Type or print "0" if you have no additional income. You must include any consistent or regular financial support or additional income contributed to your household by any person living with you or not living with you, even if it is not part of the household for tax purposes.
