

 Official website of the Department of Homeland Security

U.S. Department of Homeland Security

Joint DHS/EOIR Statement on MPP Rescheduling

Release Date: April 30, 2020

The Departments of Justice and Homeland Security have extended the temporary postponement of Migrant Protection Protocols (MPP). Hearings scheduled through, and including, June 1, 2020, will be rescheduled. As the Departments continue to review conditions related to COVID-19, they will make further determinations as necessary in order to ensure that all MPP hearings can proceed as expeditiously as possible.

Through Monday, June 1, 2020, all individuals with MPP hearings should present themselves at port of entry indicated on their most recently noticed date to receive tear sheets and new hearing notices containing the dates of their rescheduled hearings.

Topics: Border Security \(/topics/border-security\), Citizenship and Immigration Services \(/topics/immigration-and-citizenship-services\)

Keywords: Department of Justice \(DOJ\) \(/keywords/department-justice\), Migrant Protection Protocols \(MPP\) \(/keywords/migrant-protection-protocols-mpp\)

Last Published Date: April 30, 2020