Instructions for Form I-539 Application to Extend/Change Nonimmigrant Status and Supplemental Form I-539A

OMB No. 1615-0003
Expires 10/31/2021
Edition Date 10/15/2019

What Is the Purpose of Form I-539?

You should use this application if you are one of the nonimmigrants listed below and wish to apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for an extension of stay or a change to another nonimmigrant status.

In certain situations, you may use this application to apply for an initial nonimmigrant status. You may also use this application if you are a nonimmigrant F-1 or M-1 student applying for reinstatement.

When Should I Use Form I-539?

If you are using this application to apply for an extension of stay or change of status, you must submit your application before your current authorized stay expires.

We suggest you file at least 45 days, but generally not more than 6 months, before your stay expires. Failure to file before the expiration date may be excused if you demonstrate when you file the application that:

1. The delay was due to extraordinary circumstances beyond your control;
2. The length of the delay was reasonable;
3. You have not otherwise violated your status;
4. You are still a bona fide nonimmigrant; and
5. You are not in removal proceedings.

Who May File Form I-539?

Extension of Stay or Change of Status

Nonimmigrants in the United States may apply for an extension of stay or a change of status on this application, except as noted in the Who May Not File Form I-539 section of these Instructions.

Multiple Applicants

You may include your spouse and your unmarried children under 21 years of age as co-applicants in your application for the same extension or change of status, but only if you are all now in the same status or they are all in derivative status. Each co-applicant included on your Form I-539 must complete a separate Form I-539A. Online filers should follow the instructions on myUSCIS (my.uscis.gov) to create accounts and complete the Form I-539 and I-539A electronically.
What Is the Purpose of Form I-539A?

I-539A is part of Form I-539. If you are applying for more than one person using your I-539 application, use a separate Form I-539A for each additional applicant to provide all of the requested information for each additional applicant included. Each Form I-539A must include the signature of the co-applicant listed on that form. A parent or guardian may sign Form I-539A on behalf of a child under 14 years of age. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person.

NOTE: Extensions granted to members of a family group must be for the same period of time. The shortest period granted to any member of the family group will be granted to all members of the family.

Part 5. Public Benefits

In general, as a condition on the approval of this application, you must demonstrate that you have not received since obtaining the nonimmigrant status you seek to extend or from which you seek to change, one or more public benefits set forth in 8 CFR 212.21(b) (and listed below) for more than 12 months within any 36 month period (such that, for instance, receipt of two benefits in one month counts as two months).

You must provide information about all public benefits you have received since obtaining the nonimmigrant status you seek to extend or from which you seek to change. You do not need to provide information on your receipt of public benefits if you are filing under one of these categories: A1, A2, G1, G2, G3, G4, NATO1, NATO2, NATO3, NATO4, NATO5, NATO6, NATO7, T1, T2, T3, T4, T5, T6, U1, U2, U3, U4, U5).

Receipt means when a benefit-granting agency provides a public benefit to you whether in the form of cash, voucher, services, or insurance coverage. Only the amount received by or attributable to you will be considered.

In the space provided, please provide all requested information about each public benefit received, regardless of how long you received the public benefit. USCIS will calculate the duration you received public benefits, as described below, for purposes of determining your eligibility for an extension of stay or change of status. If you received public benefits intermittently throughout the year, provide each instance separately. For example, if you received SNAP from January to February and from June to December, list the information separately.

Indicate whether, since obtaining the nonimmigrant status you seek to extend or from which you seek to change, or have been certified to receive, any of the following public benefits (You need to respond even if you fall within one of the categories of individuals for whom receipt of public benefits will not be considered – see table below for evidence that must be provided to document that you qualify for the exclusion):

1. Any Federal, state, local, or tribal cash assistance for income maintenance;
2. Supplemental Security Income (SSI);
3. Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF);
4. Federal, state, or local cash benefit programs for income maintenance (often called “General Assistance” in the state context, but which may exist under other names);
5. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP, formerly called “Food Stamps”);
6. Section 8 Housing Assistance under the Housing Choice Voucher Program;
7. Section 8 Project-Based Rental Assistance (including Moderate Rehabilitation);
8. Public Housing under the Housing Act of 1937, 42 U.S.C. 1437 et seq.; and

NOTE: You only need to report public benefits received on or after October 15, 2019 but not any received before October 15, 2019.

If you have not received any public benefits, please select that option.

If you are not certified to receive any of the above listed public benefits, please select that option.

If you have received or are certified to receive the public benefits but requested disenrollment, please provide, in addition to providing the information about any exclusions below, evidence of your request to disenroll if the public benefit-granting agency has not processed your request.

Unless you qualify for certain exclusions listed in the table below, you are ineligible for extension of stay and change of status if you have received, since obtaining the nonimmigrant status that you seek to extend or from which you seek to change, the benefits listed above for more than 12 months in the aggregate within any 36-month period (such that, for instance, receipt of two public benefits in one month counts as two months).

The following is a list of exclusions from the public benefit considerations listed above. If you belong to one of the following categories, submit the evidence listed for the applicable categories.

Exclusion
U.S. Armed Forces Service Members

Description
At the time the public benefit was received or at the time you file your Form I-539, or at time of adjudication of your Form I-539, the applicant is:

- An alien enlisted in the U.S. Armed Forces, or serving in active duty or in the Ready Reserve component of the U.S. Armed Forces;
- The spouse or child of the service member (listed in Item Number 1., above); or
- The spouse or child of an individual enlisted in the U.S. Armed Forces, or serving in active duty or in the Ready Reserve component of the U.S. Armed Forces.

Evidence you must submit to qualify for exclusions (as applicable)
- Service Members: Certified evidence of alien’s enlistment/service issued by the authorizing official of the executive department in which service member is serving.
- Spouses and Children of Service Members:
  - Copy of Form DD-1173, United States Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card (Dependent).

Exclusion
Federally-funded Medicaid

Description
- Receipt by an alien under 21 years of age;
- The recipient of Medicaid payment(s) for an "emergency medical condition;"
- The receipt of Medicaid for services provided under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA);
- The receipt of Medicaid for school-based benefits for children who are of an age eligible for secondary education as determined under state or local law; or
- Receipt during pregnancy and during the 60-day period after the last day of the pregnancy.

Evidence you must submit to qualify for exclusions (as applicable)
- A statement with information regarding the “emergency medical condition” determination (if applicable);
- Documentation of these payments under the IDEA or school-based service; or
- Pregnancy verification letter from medical professional including estimated duration of pregnancy.

[Page 4]

Exclusion
Children Who Will Naturalize Under INA 322

Description
- Child currently residing abroad who entered the United States with a nonimmigrant visa to attend N-600K, Application for Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate Under INA Section 322 interview.

Evidence you must submit to qualify for exclusions (as applicable)
- A copy of the N-600K interview notice.

Exclusion
Public Benefits While in an Immigration Category Exempt from Public Charge

Description
- Received public benefits while in a category that is exempt from public charge inadmissibility; or
- Received public benefits while in a category for which you had received a waiver for public charge inadmissibility.

Evidence you must submit to qualify for exclusions (as applicable)
- Information that evidences your status or that you received a waiver for the public charge ground of inadmissibility, such as
  - Approval notice (Form I-797, Notice of Action); or
  - Form I-94, Arrival/Departure Record.

Documentation

If you have received any of the public benefits listed above, submit evidence in the form of a letter, notice, certification, or other agency documents that contain the following:

1. Your name;
2. Name and contact information for the public benefit granting agency;
3. Type of benefit;
4. Date you started receiving the benefit or if certified, date you will start receiving the benefit; and
5. Date benefit or coverage ended or expires (mm/dd/yyyy) (if applicable).
If you have received public benefits as listed above, please indicate whether an exclusion applies to you in Item Number 3, and provide the evidence listed in the chart above to demonstrate why the benefit should not be considered.

Nonimmigrant Classifications
This form may be used by the following nonimmigrants listed in alphabetical order.

1. A, Ambassador, Public Minister, or Career Diplomatic or Consular Officer and Their Immediate Family Members

You must submit a copy, front and back, of Form I-94 Arrival-Departure Record, for each person included in the application and Form I-566, Interagency Record of Request - A, G, or NATO Dependent Employment Authorization or Change/Adjustment to/from A, G, or NATO Status, certified by the U.S. Department of State (DOS) to indicate your accredited status.

2. A-3, Attendant or Servant of an A Nonimmigrant and the A-3’s Immediate Family Members

You must submit a copy, front and back, of Form I-94 for each person included in the application. You must file the application with your mission office with:

A. A copy of your employer’s Form I-94 or approval notice demonstrating A status;

B. An original letter from your employer stating:
   (1) Your duties;
   (2) That the employer intends to personally employ you for the entirety of your contract; and
   (3) Arrangements you have made to depart from the United States; and

C. An original Form I-566, certified by DOS, indicating your employer’s continuing accredited status.

NOTE: There is no fee required for any A-1, A-2, or A-3 applicant with Form I-539.

3. B-1, Visitor for Business, or B-2, Visitor for Pleasure

If you are filing for an extension/change, you must file your application with the original Form I-94 for each person included in your application. In addition, you must submit a typed or written statement explaining in detail:

A. The reasons for your request;

B. The reasons why your extended stay would be temporary, including what arrangements you have made to depart from the United States; and

C. Any effect the extended stay may have on your foreign employment or residency.

If you are applying for a change of B-1, visitor for business status, you must designate your desired status using the following classification in Part 2, Item Number 3.c. of Form I-539:

A. B-1A, nonimmigrant who is the personal or domestic servant of a nonimmigrant employer;

B. B-1B, nonimmigrant who is a personal or domestic servant of a U.S. citizen and who is on temporary assignment in the United States;
C. B-1C, nonimmigrant who is employed by a foreign airline;
D. B-1D, nonimmigrant who is a minister of religion or a missionary;
E. B-1 United Nations Observer Mission (fee/biometrics exempt); and
F. B-1, all other B-1 visa classifications not designated above.

4. Dependents (CW-2) of a CW-1 Transitional Worker

If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is a CW-1 transitional worker, you must submit this application with:

A. Evidence of lawful presence in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) as defined in 8 CFR 214.2(w)(1)(v); and
B. Evidence of each applicant’s relationship to the CW-1 transitional worker, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s); and
C. One of the following:
   (1) Form I-129CW, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker in the CNMI, filed on behalf of the CW-1 transitional worker;
   (2) A copy of the I-797 Receipt Notice related to the transitional worker’s already pending petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the transitional worker’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the I-797 Approval Notice showing the transitional worker has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.

NOTE: Dependents of CW-1 transitional workers must apply for extension/change of status to CW-2 on this application. An employer must file Form I-129CW to obtain CW-1 status on behalf of an employee or prospective employee.

5. Dependents of a Principal E Nonimmigrant

The principal E nonimmigrant classifications include: E-1 Treaty Traders and their E-1 employees, E-2 Treaty Investors and their E-2 employees, E-2 CNMI Investors, and E-3 Australian Specialty Occupation Professionals.

NOTE: Dependents of E nonimmigrants receive the same classification as the principal.
If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of a principal E nonimmigrant, you must submit the following with your application:

A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;
B. Evidence of each applicant’s relationship to the principal E nonimmigrant, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s); and
C. At least one of the following:
   (1) Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, filed on behalf of the principal E nonimmigrant;
   (2) A copy of the I-797 Receipt Notice related to the principal E nonimmigrant’s already pending Form I-129 petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the principal E nonimmigrant’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the I-797 Approval Notice showing the principal E nonimmigrant has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.
NOTE: Dependents of principal E nonimmigrants must use this application for extension/change of status to the same E classification as the principal. An employer must file Form I-129 on behalf of a principal E nonimmigrant who is currently in the United States. If the principal E nonimmigrant is not currently in the United States, he or she must contact a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate abroad to apply for E classification. Dependent spouses of principal E nonimmigrants may not work upon approval of this application. To request work authorization, the dependent spouse must file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization. Dependent children of principal E nonimmigrants are not authorized for employment.

6. F-1, Academic Student

To request a change to F-1 status or to apply for reinstatement as an F-1 student, you must submit a copy of your Form I-94, and, if applicable a copy of the Form I-94 for each person included in the application.

Your application must also include a copy of your Form I-20, Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student, issued by the school where you will study, and you must submit documentation that demonstrates your ability to pay for your studies and support yourself, and any accompanying dependent family members, while you are in the United States.

F-1 Reinstatement

In addition to the above documents, you must also submit evidence that your violation of status resulted from circumstances beyond your control or that your violation relates to a reduction in your course load that would have been within a Designated School Official’s (DSO’s) power to authorize, and that failure to approve reinstatement would result in extreme hardship to you.

If you have been out of status for more than five months at the time of filing your request for reinstatement, you must also provide evidence that your failure to file within the five-month period was the result of exceptional circumstances and that you filed your request for reinstatement as promptly as possible under these exceptional circumstances.

F-1 Extensions

Only use this application to request an extension if you were admitted for a limited duration as a student entering to study at a public secondary school. All other students seeking information concerning extensions should contact their DSO.

[Page 7]

7. G, Designated Principal Resident Representative of a Foreign Government and His or Her Immediate Family Members

You must submit a copy, front and back, of Form I-94 for each person included in the application, and Form I-566, certified by Department of State (DOS) to indicate your accredited status.

8. G-5, Attendant or Servant of a G Nonimmigrant and the G-5’s Immediate Family Members

You must file the application with your mission office, along with:
A. A copy of your employer’s Form I-94 or approval notice demonstrating G status;
B. An original letter from your employer describing your duties stating that he or she intends to personally employ you and arrangements you have made to depart from the United States; and
C. An original Form I-566, certified by the DOS, indicating your employer’s continuing accredited status.

NOTE: There is no fee required for any G-1, G-2, G-3, G-4, or G-5 applicant with Form I-539.

9. Dependents (H-4) of an H, Temporary Worker

If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is an H temporary worker, you must submit the following with this application:

A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;
B. Evidence of each applicant’s relationship to the H temporary worker, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s); and
C. At least one of the following:
   (1) Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, filed on behalf of the H temporary worker;
   (2) A copy of the Form I-797 Receipt Notice related to the H temporary worker’s already pending Form I-129 petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the H temporary worker’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the Form I-797 Approval Notice showing the H temporary worker has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.

NOTE: Dependents of H temporary workers must apply for extension/change of status to H-4 on this application. An employer must file Form I-129 on behalf of the H temporary worker.

10. I, Representatives of Foreign Media and Dependents

Nonimmigrants granted I classification may be admitted for the duration of employment. You do not need to file for an extension of stay as long as you work for the same employer in the same information medium.

However, you must file this application to request a change of employer or a change in the information medium in which you work. To do this, select Part 2, Item Number 1, of Form I-539 and annotate “change of employer” or “change of information medium” next to that selection.

If you are requesting a change of status to I nonimmigrant status, select Item Number 3.c. in Part 2 of Form I-539 and indicate “I-Foreign Press” in the space provided.

To change your status to I, or to extend your stay in I nonimmigrant status due to a change of employer or information medium, you must submit the following with your application:

A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;
B. A letter from the employing foreign media organization that verifies the employment, establishes that you are a representative of that media organization, and describes the remuneration and work to be performed; and

C. If applicable, evidence of each dependent’s relationship to the principal, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriages. (NOTE: Dependents of I nonimmigrants receive the same classification as the principal.)

II. J-1, Exchange Visitor

If you are requesting a change of status to J-1 nonimmigrant classification, you must file your application with a DS-2019, Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor Status. You must also submit your Form I-94, and, if applicable the Form I-94 for each person included in the application.

J-1 Extensions

If you are a J-1 exchange visitor seeking an extension of nonimmigrant status, contact the responsible officer of your program for information about this procedure.

J-1 Reinstatement

If you are a J-1 exchange visitor seeking reinstatement, contact the responsible officer at your sponsoring program for information about the reinstatement procedure.

Notice to J Nonimmigrants

A J-1 exchange visitor whose status is to receive graduate medical education or training, and who has not received the appropriate waiver, is ineligible for change of status except to a nonimmigrant T or U visa. In addition, a J-1 exchange visitor who is subject to the foreign residence requirement, and who has not received a waiver of that requirement, is only eligible for a change of status to a nonimmigrant A, G, T, or U visa.

If a J-1 exchange visitor is subject to the foreign residence requirement, their J-2 dependent is also subject to this requirement as a derivative. If the J-1 exchange visitor obtains a waiver of the foreign residence requirement, the J-2 dependent is also exempt from the requirement. Under certain limited circumstances, a J-2 dependent may be independently eligible for a waiver of the foreign residence requirement.

A former J nonimmigrant (either a J-1 principal or a J-2 dependent) subject to the foreign residence requirement, who is currently maintaining another nonimmigrant visa status, continues to be subject to the foreign residence requirement. As noted above, the former J nonimmigrant is ineligible for a change of status until he or she fulfills the foreign residence requirement or obtains the appropriate waiver.

If you are a current or former J nonimmigrant, you must provide information about this status, including the dates you maintained status as a J-1 exchange visitor or a J-2 dependent. Willful failure to disclose this information (or other relevant information) can result in your application being denied. Provide proof of this status along with your application, such as a copy of Form DS-2019, Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor Status, or a copy of your passport that includes the J visa stamp.

K Nonimmigrant

A spouse (K-3) of a U.S. citizen and his or her children (K-4), accorded such status pursuant to the LIFE Act, may not change to another nonimmigrant status.
EXCEPTION: A K-3 and K-4 are eligible to apply for an extension of status. They should file for an extension during the processing of Form I-130 filed on their behalf and up to completion of their adjustment-of-status or immigrant visa application.

NOTE: Any nonimmigrant (A to V) may not change his or her status to K-3 or K-4.

12. Dependents (L-2) of an L, Intracompany Transferee

If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is an L intracompany transferee, you must submit the following with this application:

A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;

B. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;

C. At least one of the following:
   (1) Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, filed on behalf of the L intracompany transferee;
   (2) A copy of the I-797 Receipt Notice related to the L intracompany transferee’s already pending Form I-129 petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the L intracompany transferee’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the I-797 Approval Notice showing the L intracompany transferee has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.

NOTE: Dependents of L intracompany transferees must apply for extension/change of status to L-2 on this form. An employer must file Form I-129 on behalf of the L intracompany transferee.

Dependent spouses of L intracompany transferees may not work upon approval of this application. To request work authorization, the dependent spouse must file Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization. Dependent children of L intracompany transferees are not authorized for employment.

13. M-1, Vocational or Non-Academic Student

To request a change to or extension of M-1 status, or apply for reinstatement to M-1 status, you must submit your Form I-94, and, if applicable Form I-94 for each person included in the application.

Your application must also include a copy of your Form I-20, Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student, issued by the school where you will study, and you must submit documentation that demonstrates your ability to pay for your studies and support yourself, and any accompanying dependent family members, while you are in the United States.

M-1 Reinstatement

In addition to the above documents you must also submit evidence that your violation of status resulted from circumstances beyond your control or that your violation relates to a reduction in your course load.
that would have been within a DSO’s power to authorize, and that failure to approve reinstatement would result in extreme hardship to you.

If you have been out of status for more than five months at the time of filing your request for reinstatement, you must also provide evidence that your failure to file within the five-month period was the result of exceptional circumstances and that you filed your request for reinstatement as promptly as possible under these exceptional circumstances.

M-1 Extension

In addition to submitting the above evidence, you will need to submit evidence supporting your reason for requesting an extension. You may request an extension of stay for the following reasons:

A. If compelling educational or medical reasons have resulted in a delay to your course of study. Delays caused by academic probation or suspension are not acceptable reasons for program extension.
B. You are transferring to a different school.

NOTE: If you are transferring schools six months, or more, from the date you were first admitted, you will need to submit evidence showing you are unable to remain at the school you were initially admitted to attend due to circumstances beyond your control.

C. You are applying for post-completion optional practical training (OPT).

NOTE: M-1 students may not change their educational objective and should not request an extension for this reason.

No extension can be granted to an M-1 student if the M-1 student is unable to complete the course of study, to include any requested post-completion OPT, within three years of the original program start date.

14. Dependents (O-3) of an O, Alien of Extraordinary Ability or Achievement

If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is an O nonimmigrant worker, you must submit the following with this application:

A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;
B. Evidence of each applicant’s relationship to the O nonimmigrant worker, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s); and
C. At least one of the following:
   (1) Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, filed on behalf of the O nonimmigrant worker;
   (2) A copy of the Form I-797 Receipt Notice related to the O nonimmigrant worker’s already pending Form I-129 petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the O nonimmigrant worker’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the Form I-797 Approval Notice showing the O nonimmigrant worker has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.
NOTE: Dependents of O nonimmigrant workers must apply for extension/change of status to O-3 on this form. An employer must file Form I-129 on behalf of the O nonimmigrant worker.

15. Dependents (P-4) of a P, Artist, Athlete, or Entertainer

If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is a P nonimmigrant worker, you must submit the following with this application:

A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;
B. Evidence of each applicant’s relationship to the P nonimmigrant worker, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s); and
C. At least one of the following:
   (1) Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, filed on behalf of the P nonimmigrant worker;
   (2) A copy of the Form I-797 Receipt Notice related to the P nonimmigrant worker’s already pending I-129 petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the P nonimmigrant worker’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the Form I-797 Approval Notice showing the P nonimmigrant worker has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.

NOTE: Dependents of P nonimmigrant workers must apply for extension/change of status to P-4 on this form. An employer must file Form I-129 on behalf of the P nonimmigrant worker.

16. Dependents (R-2) of an R, Religious Worker

If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is an R religious worker, you must submit the following with this application:

A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;
B. Evidence of each applicant’s relationship to the R religious worker, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s); and
C. At least one of the following:
   (1) Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, filed on behalf of the R religious worker;
   (2) A copy of the Form I-797 Receipt Notice related to the R religious worker’s already pending Form I-129 petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the R religious worker’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the Form I-797 Approval Notice showing the R religious worker has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.

NOTE: Dependents of R religious workers must apply for extension/change of status to R-2 nonimmigrant status on this form. An employer must file Form I-129 on behalf of the R religious worker.

17. Dependents (TD) of a TN, Canadian or Mexican Professional

If you are filing for an extension/change of status as the dependent of an employee who is a TN professional worker, you must submit the following with this application:
A. A copy of the front and back of Form I-94 for each person included on this application;
B. Evidence of each applicant’s relationship to the TN professional worker, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s); and
C. At least one of the following:
   (1) Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker, filed on behalf of the TN professional worker;
   (2) A copy of the Form I-797 Receipt Notice related to the TN professional worker’s already pending Form I-129 petition;
   (3) A copy of the front and back of the TN professional worker’s most recent Form I-94; or
   (4) A copy of the Form I-797 Approval Notice showing the TN professional worker has already been granted status for the period requested on your application.

NOTE: Dependents of TN professional workers must apply for extension/change of status to TD on this form. An employer must file Form I-129 on behalf of a TN professional worker who is currently in the United States. If the principal TN nonimmigrant is not currently in the United States, Mexican citizen professionals must contact a U.S. Embassy or U.S. Consulate in Mexico and Canadian citizen professionals must contact a designated port-of-entry to apply for TN classification.

18. T Nonimmigrants

If you are filing for an extension of status as a T nonimmigrant based on law enforcement need, you must submit this application with:

A. A copy of your Form I-94 or approval notice showing that you have already been granted T status; and
B. Evidence demonstrating law enforcement need, such as a new Form I-914 Supplement B, Declaration of Law Enforcement Officer for Victims of Trafficking in Persons, or other evidence from law enforcement explaining that your presence is necessary, and any other credible evidence.

If you are filing for an extension of status as a T nonimmigrant based on exceptional circumstances, you must submit this application with:

A. A copy of your Form I-94 or approval notice showing that you have already been granted T status; and
B. Evidence demonstrating exceptional circumstances, such as an affirmative statement or any other credible evidence.

NOTE: Extensions of T nonimmigrant status based on the filing of Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, do not require the filing of Form I-539. T nonimmigrant status is automatically extended when the Form I-485 is filed.

19. T Derivative Nonimmigrants

A T derivative nonimmigrant may file for an extension of status independently if the T-1 principal remains in valid T nonimmigrant status, or the T-1 principal nonimmigrant may file for an extension of T-1 status and request that this extension be applied to the derivative family members.
If the T-1 principal nonimmigrant wants the extension of status request described above to be applied to derivative family members with T-2, T-3, T-4, T-5, or T-6 nonimmigrant status that are currently in the United States, indicate that request in writing and include a separate from I-539A for each derivative. Each Form I-539A must be submitted with a copy of the derivative’s Form I-94 or approval notice showing that the derivative was already granted T-2, T-3, T-4, T-5, or T-6 status.

If you are a T-2, T-3, T-4, T-5, or T-6 nonimmigrant filing independently for an extension of status, you must submit this application with:

A. Justification for your extension request (statement of need and reasons);
B. A copy of your Form I-94, approval notice or your passport with your T nonimmigrant visa showing that you have already been granted T nonimmigrant status; and
C. Evidence of relationship to the T-1 nonimmigrant principal, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriage(s).

NOTE: Extensions cannot be granted to derivative family members who are still outside the United States and have never entered the United States in T nonimmigrant status. A statement should be included with the application if there are family members outside the United States who have not been processed through a consulate. Therefore, if the T-1 principal’s status is extended, an amended approval notice will be issued for derivative family members outside the United States to facilitate the consular processing.

20. Temporary Protected Status (TPS) Applicants
Individuals who are currently in the United States with TPS may be eligible to file Form I-539 to request to change to a different nonimmigrant status. TPS applicants must submit this application with:

A. Evidence of an approved I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status;
B. A copy of government identification or a copy of an Employment Authorization Document;
C. Evidence of your compliance with TPS re-registration requirements; and
D. Evidence of your eligibility for the classification you wish to request.

21. U Nonimmigrants
If you are filing for an extension of status as a U nonimmigrant based on law enforcement need, you must submit this application with:

A. A copy of your Form I-94 or approval notice showing that you have already been granted U status; and
B. Evidence demonstrating law enforcement need, such as a new Form I-918 Supplement B, U NonimmigrantStatus Certification, or other evidence from law enforcement explaining that your presence is necessary, and any other credible evidence.

If you are filing for an extension of status as a U nonimmigrant based on exceptional circumstances, you must submit this application with:

A. A copy of your Form I-94 or approval notice showing that you have already been granted U status; and
B. Evidence demonstrating exceptional circumstances, such as an affirmative statement or any other credible evidence.
NOTE: Extensions of U nonimmigrant status based on the filing of Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, do not require the filing of Form I-539. U nonimmigrant status is automatically extended when the Form I-485 is filed.

22. U Derivative Nonimmigrants

A U derivative nonimmigrant may file for an extension of status independently, or the U-1 principal nonimmigrant may file for an extension of U-1 status and request that this extension be applied to the derivative family members.

If the U-1 nonimmigrant principal wants the extension of status request based on law enforcement need or exceptional circumstances described above to be applied to derivative family members with U-2, U-3, U-4, or U-5 nonimmigrant status that are currently in the United States, indicate that request in writing and list each derivative separately on Form I-539A. Each Form I-539A must be submitted with a copy of the derivative’s Form I-94 or approval notice showing that the derivative was already granted U-2, U-3, U-4, or U-5 status.

If you are a U-2, U-3, U-4, or U-5 nonimmigrant filing independently for an extension of status, for example, based on consular delays or to ensure three years of physical presence, you must submit this application with:

A. Justification for your extension request (statement of need and reasons);
B. A copy of your Form I-94, approval notice or your passport with your U nonimmigrant visa showing that you have already been granted U nonimmigrant status; and
C. Evidence of relationship to the U-1 nonimmigrant principal, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate and proof of termination of any prior marriages.

NOTE: Extensions cannot be granted to derivative family members who are still outside the United States and have never entered the United States in U nonimmigrant status. A statement should be included with the application if there are family members outside the United States who have not been processed through a consulate. Therefore, if the U-1 principal’s status is extended, an amended approval notice will be issued for derivative family members outside the United States to facilitate the consular processing.

NOTE: If you never entered the United States in U-2, U-3, U-4, or U-5 derivative status and the principal U-1 nonimmigrant has an approved Form I-485, Applicant to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, you are not eligible for an extension of status. The U-1 principal nonimmigrant may consider filing Form I-929, Petition for Qualifying Family Member of a U-1 Nonimmigrant.

23. V, Spouse or Child of a Lawful Permanent Resident

Use Form I-539 if you are physically present in the United States and wish to request initial status or change status to a V nonimmigrant, or to request an extension of your current V nonimmigrant status.

Who Is Eligible for V Nonimmigrant Status?

In order to be eligible for a V nonimmigrant status, you must meet all of the following conditions:
A. You must be the spouse or the unmarried child of a lawful permanent resident, or a derivative child of such an individual;
B. Your lawful permanent resident petitioner must have filed Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, for you on or before December 21, 2000; and
C. Form I-130 must have been filed three or more years prior to filing form I-539 and remain pending or be approved and you must either:
   (1) Be waiting for an immigrant visa number to become available; or
   (2) If an immigrant visa number is immediately available, you must have a pending application for adjustment of status or an application for an immigrant visa.
D. You must be admissible to the United States, except where the grounds of inadmissibility do not apply or have been waived. The grounds of inadmissibility that do not apply are Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) sections:
   (1) 212(a)(6)(A) -- Aliens present without admission or parole;
   (2) 212(a)(7) -- Aliens without valid passports, visas, or other entry documents; and

(3) 212(a)(9)(B) -- Aliens who were unlawfully present for more than 180 days, then departed, and seek admission while barred from doing so.
E. Unmarried sons and daughters of lawful permanent residents who have maintained V status since they were children, are eligible for extensions of V status while awaiting availability of immigrant visas in the F2B category.

You must submit the following with the Form I-539 application:

A. Proof that you are the beneficiary of an immigrant petition that qualifies you for V nonimmigrant status. Proof may be in the form of Form I-797, Notice of Action, which serves as a receipt or as a notice of approval for a properly filed Form I-130.

B. If a visa number is immediately available, you must also submit a proof of a pending Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status. Proof of a pending Form I-485 may be in the form of Form I-797, Notice of Action, which serves as a receipt notice for a properly filed Form I-485.

If you do not have such proof, USCIS will review other forms of evidence, such as correspondence to or from USCIS regarding a pending petition.

Additional Evidence Requirements for V Nonimmigrants

In addition to the General Filing Instructions and Initial Evidence required by the Form I-539 Instructions, you must submit:

Form I-693, Report of Medical Examination and Vaccination Record, (without the vaccination supplement) is only required for Form I-539 initial filings.

When seeking an extension of your V nonimmigrant status, you may file no earlier than 120 days before your current expiration date.

V visa holders will be eligible to apply for adjustment of status to lawful permanent resident once an immigrant visa becomes available to them. While they are waiting, V nonimmigrants are authorized to work incident to status. To obtain an Employment Authorization Document evidencing employment authorization, an applicant for V status may file a Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, at the same time as the Form I-539, or while his or her Form I-539 is pending, or after it has been approved.

WARNING: V nonimmigrants who have been in the United States illegally for more than 180 days may trigger the grounds of inadmissibility regarding unlawful presence (for the applicable 3-year or 10-year bar to admission) if they leave the United States. Their departure may prevent them from adjusting status as a permanent resident.

NOTE: If a principal TN nonimmigrant is not currently in the United States, Mexican citizen professionals must contact the U.S. Embassy or a U.S. Consulate in Mexico and Canadian citizen professionals must contact a designated U.S. port-of-entry to apply for TN classification.

Who May Not File Form I-539?

You may not be granted an extension or change of status if you were admitted under the Visa Waiver Program or if your current status is:

1. An alien in transit (C) or in transit without a visa (TWOV);
2. A crewman (D); or
3. A fiancé(e) or dependent of a fiancé(e) (K-1 or K-2).

A spouse (K-3) of a U.S. citizen and his or her children (K-4), accorded such status pursuant to the LIFE Act, may not change to another nonimmigrant status.

EXCEPTION: A K-3 and K-4 are eligible to apply for an extension of status. They should file for an extension during the processing of Form I-130 filed on their behalf and up to completion of their adjustment-of-status application.

NOTE: Any nonimmigrant (A to V) may not change his or her status to K-3 or K-4.

General Instructions

USCIS provides forms free of charge through the USCIS website. In order to view, print, or fill out our forms, you should use the latest version of Adobe Reader, which you can download for free at http://get.adobe.com/reader/. If you do not have internet access, you may order USCIS forms by calling the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833. If you are electronically filing this application, you must follow the instructions provided on the USCIS website at https://www.uscis.gov/i539online.

Signature. Each application must be properly signed and filed. Additionally, each Form I-539A must include the signature of the individual co-applicant. For all signatures on this application, USCIS will not accept a stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature. If you are under 14 years of age, your parent or legal guardian may sign the application on your behalf. A legal guardian may also sign for a mentally incompetent person. If the Form I-539 or Form I-539A (when necessary) is not signed or if the requisite signature on the request is not valid, USCIS will reject the request. See 8 CFR 103.2(a)(7)(ii)(A). If USCIS accepts a request for adjudication and determines that it has a deficient signature, USCIS will deny the request and keep the fee.

Validity of Signatures. USCIS will consider a photocopied, faxed, or scanned copy of the original handwritten signature valid for filing purposes. The photocopy, fax, or scan must be of the original document containing the handwritten, ink signature. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

Filing Fee. Each application must be accompanied by the appropriate filing fee. Each application and each I-539A must also include a biometric services fee (if applicable). (See the What Is the Filing Fee section of these Instructions.)

Evidence. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documents listed in these Instructions. Applications for V Nonimmigrants must also include the evidence listed in the Additional Evidence Requirements for V Nonimmigrants section of these Instructions.

Biometric Services Appointment. USCIS will require that you and each co-applicant for whom an I-539A is filed appear for a biometric services appointment (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. We may also require that you and each co-applicant appear for an interview. After USCIS receives your application and ensures it is complete, we will inform you in writing of the location of your local or designated USCIS Application Support Center (ASC) and the date and time of your appointment or, if you are currently overseas, instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to set up an appointment.

At your appointment you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you fail to attend your biometric services appointment, USCIS may deny your application.

NOTE: All domestic USCIS facilities meet the Accessibility Guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act, so you do not need to contact USCIS to request an accommodation for physical access to a domestic USCIS office. However, in Part 4. of this application, you can indicate whether you use a wheelchair. This information will allow USCIS to better prepare for your visit.

NOTE: USCIS also ensures that limited English proficient (LEP) individuals have meaningful access at an interview or other immigration benefit-related appointment, unless otherwise prohibited by law. LEP individuals may bring a qualified interpreter to the interview. USCIS considers requests for language assistance on a case-by-case basis, and we will make reasonable effort to provide you with a qualified interpreter.
In addition, USCIS ensures that individuals with disabilities are provided an equal opportunity to effectively communicate at an interview or other immigration benefit-related appointment, unless otherwise prohibited by law. This may include providing appropriate auxiliary aids and services where necessary, including but not limited to written materials, sign language interpreters, qualified readers, and Brailled materials.

USCIS will not exclude you from participating in USCIS programs or deny your application because of your disability or lack of English proficiency. Requesting and/or receiving language assistance for your lack of English proficiency or a reasonable modification for your disability will not affect your eligibility for an immigration benefit.

Copies. You should submit legible photocopies of documents requested, unless the Instructions specifically state that you must submit an original document. USCIS may request an original document at the time of filing or at any time during processing of an application or petition. If USCIS requests an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

NOTE: If you submit original documents when not required or requested by USCIS, your original documents may be immediately destroyed after we receive them.

Translations. If you submit a document with information in a foreign language, you must also submit a full English translation. The translator must sign a certification that the English language translation is complete and accurate, and that he or she is competent to translate from the foreign language into English. The certification must also include the translator’s signature, printed name, the signature date, and the translator’s contact information.

How to Fill Out Form I-539

1. Type or print legibly in black ink.

2. If you need extra space to complete any item within this application, use the space provided in Part 9. Additional Information or attach a separate sheet of paper. Type or print your name and Alien Registration Number (A-Number) (if any) at the top of each sheet; indicate the Page Number, Part Number, and Item Number to which your answer refers; and sign and date each sheet.

3. Answer all questions fully and accurately. If a question does not apply to you (for example, if you have never been married and the question asks, “Provide the name of your current spouse”), type or print “N/A” unless otherwise directed. If your answer to a question which requires a numeric response is zero or none (for example, “How many children do you have” or “How many times have you departed the United States”), type or print “None” unless otherwise directed.

4. Duration of Status. If you are currently in A, G, I, F, or J status and granted Duration of Status (D/S), select the box in Part 1., Item Number 16. of the application.

5. Change of Status. Part 2., Item Number 3.b. of the application, select the date on which you want your change of status to occur. If approved, your change of status will occur on the date your current nonimmigrant status ends, the date of approval, or the requested date, whichever occurs later.

6. F or J Nonimmigrant. If you were granted D/S as an F or J nonimmigrant and are seeking reinstatement as an F or J nonimmigrant, then you should select the box in Part 1., Item Number 16. of the application to indicate a duration of D/S.
NOTE: An F-1 nonimmigrant student who is admitted to attend a public high school is restricted to an aggregate of 12 months of study at any public high school and is not eligible for D/S. Please indicate a specific date for the duration of your requested status.

7. Part 6. Applicant’s Statement, Contact Information, Certification, and Signature. Select the appropriate box to indicate whether you read this application yourself or whether you had an interpreter assist you. If someone assisted you in completing the application, select the box indicating that you used a preparer. Further, you must sign and date your application, thereby certifying, under penalty of perjury, that all information in the certification and in and submitted with your application is true, correct, and complete. You must also provide your daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). Every application MUST contain the signature of the applicant (or parent or legal guardian, if applicable). A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

8. Part 7. Interpreter’s Contact Information, Certification, and Signature. If you used anyone as an interpreter to read the Instructions and questions on this application to you in a language in which you are fluent, the interpreter must fill out this section and provide the interpreter’s name; the name and address of the interpreter’s business or organization (if any); and the interpreter’s daytime telephone number, mobile telephone number (if any), and email address (if any). The interpreter must sign and date the application, thereby certifying, under penalty of perjury, the truth of the content of the interpreter’s certification. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable.

9. Part 8. Contact Information, Declaration, and Signature of the Person Preparing this Application, if Other Than the Applicant. This section must contain the signature of the person who completed your application, if other than you, the applicant. If the same individual acted as your interpreter and your preparer, that person should complete both Part 7. and Part 8. If the person who completed this application is associated with a business or organization, that person should complete the business or organization name and address information. Anyone who helped you complete this application MUST sign and date the application, thereby certifying, under penalty of perjury, the truth of the content of the preparer’s certification. A stamped or typewritten name in place of a signature is not acceptable. If the person who helped you prepare your application is an attorney or accredited representative, he or she may also need to submit a completed Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative, along with your application.

We recommend that you print or save a copy of your completed application to review in the future and for your records. We recommend that you review your copy of your completed application before you go to your biometric services appointment at a USCIS ASC. At your appointment, USCIS will permit you to complete the application process only if you are able to confirm, under penalty of perjury, that all of the information in your application is complete, true, and correct. If you are not able to make that attestation in good faith at that time, USCIS will require you to return for another appointment.

General Requirements

Required Documentation – Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record. You are required to submit with your Form I-539 the original or a copy, front and back, of Form I-94 for each person included in your application. If the original Form I-94 or required copy cannot be submitted with this application, complete Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Document, and submit it with the required fee, with Form I-539.

Form I-94 Arrival-Departure Record. If U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or USCIS issued you a Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, provide your I-94 admission number and date that your authorized period of stay expires or expired (as shown on Form I-94). The I-94 admission number also is known as the Departure Number on some versions of Form I-94.

NOTE: If you were admitted to the United States by CBP at an airport or seaport after April 30, 2013, you may have been issued an electronic Form I-94 by CBP, instead of a paper Form I-94. You may visit the CBP website at www.cbp.gov/i94 to obtain a paper version of an electronic Form I-94. CBP does not charge a fee for this service. Some travelers admitted to the United States at a land border, airport, or seaport, after April 30, 2013 with a passport or travel document, who were issued a paper Form I-94 by CBP, may also be able to obtain a replacement Form I-94 from the CBP website without charge. If the Form I-94 cannot be obtained from the CBP website, it may be obtained by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/ Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. USCIS does charge a fee for this service.

Passport and Travel Document Numbers. If you used a passport or travel document to travel to the United States, record either the passport or travel document information in the appropriate space on the form, even if the passport or travel document is currently expired. In Part 1., Item Number 11., provide the principal applicant’s passport number at the time he or she was granted the Form I-94. In Part 4., indicate the principal applicant’s current passport number. These numbers may or may not be the same.

Valid Passport. If you were required to have a passport to be admitted into the United States, you must maintain the validity of your passport during your nonimmigrant stay. If a required passport is not valid when you file Form I-539, submit an explanation with your form.

Evidence of Relationship. If you are including other family members on your application, you must submit the following documents to establish your family relationship. If you are filing for a relative listed below, submit the following documentation to prove the family relationship.

A. A spouse:
(1) A copy of your marriage certificate;
(2) If you or your spouse were ever married to anyone else, copies of documents showing that any previous marriage(s) was/were legally terminated; and
(3) A copy of the applicant’s visa indicating a dependent classification and/or the principal spouse’s name.

B. Child:
(1) A copy of the child’s birth certificate or adoption decree showing the name of the child and the parents; and
(2) A copy of the applicant’s visa indicating a dependent classification and/or the parent’s name.

C. Other relationship:
Attach documentary evidence to establish your family member’s relationship to you.
What Is the Filing Fee?

The filing fee for Form I-539 is $370, except for certain A, B-1, G, and NATO nonimmigrants who are not required to pay a fee, as noted in these Instructions.

An additional biometrics services fee of $85 is required for you and for each person included for whom you completed a Form I-539A, except for certain A, B-1, G, and NATO nonimmigrants who are not required to pay a fee. After you submit Form I-539, USCIS will notify you about when and where to go for biometrics services.

The following nonimmigrants are not required to submit either the filing fee or the biometrics fee:

1. Individuals changing into or out of A-1, A-2, or A-3 status;
2. Individuals changing into or out of B-1 (United Nations Observer Mission) status
3. Individuals changing into or out of G-1, G-2, G-3, G-4, or G-5 status; and
4. Individuals changing into or out of NATO-1, NATO-2, NATO-3, NATO-4, NATO-5, or NATO-6 status.

[Page 19]

NOTE: The filing fee and biometric services fee are not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on this application. DO NOT MAIL CASH. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

Payments by Checks or Money Orders

Use the following guidelines when you prepare your checks or money orders for the Form I-539 filing fee and biometric services fee:

1. The checks or money orders must be drawn on a bank or other financial institution located in the United States and must be payable in U.S. currency; and

NOTE: Spell out U.S. Department of Homeland Security; do not use the initials “USDHS” or “DHS.”

Notice to Those Paying by Check. If you send USCIS a check, we will convert it into an electronic funds transfer (EFT). This means we will copy your check and use the account information on it to electronically debit your account for the amount of the check. The debit from your account will usually take 24 hours and your bank will show it on your regular account statement.

You will not receive your original check back. We will destroy your original check, but will keep a copy of it. If USCIS cannot process the EFT for technical reasons, you authorize us to process the copy in place of your original check. If your check is returned as unpayable, we will re-submit the payment to the financial institution one time. If the check is returned as unpayable a second time, we will reject your application and charge you a returned check fee.

Payments by Credit Card
If you are filing your application at a USCIS Lockbox facility, you can pay your filing fee and biometric services fee using a credit card. Please see Form G-1450, Authorization for Credit Card Transactions, at www.uscis.gov/G-1450 for more information.

How To Check If the Fees Are Correct

Form I-539’s filing fee and biometric services fee are current as of the edition date in the lower left corner of this page. However, because USCIS fees change periodically, you can verify that the fees are correct by following one of the steps below.

1. Visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov, select “FORMS,” and check the appropriate fee; or
2. Visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter to get answers to your questions and connect with a live USCIS representative. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

Fee Waiver

AUSCIS will accept a fee waiver request in accordance to 8 CFR 103.7(c)(3)(xviii) for T and U nonimmigrants. If you believe you are eligible for a fee waiver, complete Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver (or a written request), and submit it and any required evidence of your inability to pay the filing fee with this application. You can review the fee waiver guidance at www.uscis.gov/feewaiver.

Where To File?

Please see our website at www.uscis.gov/I-539 or visit the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter to connect with a USCIS representative for the most current information about where to file this application. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

E-Filing Form I-539

Certain Form I-539 filings may be electronically filed with USCIS. View our website at www.uscis.gov “FORMS,” and click on the link “E-Filing and Online Service” for information on who is eligible to e-file this form.

Special Information for Applicants Residing in the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI)

If the applicant is lawfully present in the CNMI, the applicant may be eligible to apply for a grant of status with this application without having to seek consular processing. The request for the initial grant of status must be accompanied by an additional biometric services fee as described in section 8 CFR 103.7(b)(1) and evidence of the applicant’s lawful presence. The applicant will be required to submit biometric information before the application for a grant of status is approved. Although this is a request for an initial grant of status rather than a change of nonimmigrant status, in Part 2., the applicant should select Item Number 3.a., and identify the nonimmigrant status he or she is initially requesting in Item Number 3.c.
Address Change

An applicant who is not a U.S. citizen must notify USCIS of his or her new address within 10 days of moving from his or her previous residence. For information on filing a change of address, go to the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov/addresschange or reach out to the USCIS Contact Center at www.uscis.gov/contactcenter for help. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

NOTE: Do not submit a change of address request to the USCIS Lockbox facilities because the Lockbox does not process change of address requests.

Processing Information

Initial Processing. Once USCIS accepts your application, we will check it for completeness. If you do not completely fill out this application, you will not establish a basis for your eligibility and USCIS may reject or deny your application.

Requests for More Information. USCIS may request that you provide more information or evidence to support your application. We may also request that you provide the originals of any copies you submit. If we request an original document from you, it will be returned to you after USCIS determines it no longer needs your original.

Requests for Interview. We may request that you appear at a USCIS office for an interview based on your application. At the time of any interview or other appearance at a USCIS office, we may require that you provide your biometrics to verify your identity and/or update background and security checks.

Decision. The decision on Form I-539 involves a determination of whether you have established eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking. USCIS will notify you of the decision in writing.

USCIS Forms and Information

To ensure you are using the latest version of this application, visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov where you can obtain the latest USCIS forms and immigration-related information. If you do not have internet access, you may order USCIS forms by calling the USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283. The USCIS Contact Center provides information in English and Spanish. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) call: 1-800-767-1833.

[Page 21]

Instead of waiting in line for assistance at your local USCIS office, you can schedule an appointment online at www.uscis.gov. Select “Make an Appointment” and follow the screen prompts to set up your appointment. Once you finish scheduling an appointment, the system will generate an appointment notice for you.

Penalties
If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your Form I-539, we will deny your Form I-539 and may deny any other immigration benefit. In addition, you will face severe penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

USCIS Compliance Review and Monitoring

By signing this application, you have stated under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. section 1746) that all information and documentation submitted with this application is complete, true, and correct. You also authorize the release of any information from your records that USCIS may need to determine your eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking.

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has the authority to verify any information you submit to establish eligibility for the immigration benefit you are seeking at any time. USCIS’ legal authority to verify this information is in 8 U.S.C. sections 1103, 1155, and 1184, and 8 CFR parts 103, 204, 205, and 214. To ensure compliance with applicable laws and authorities, USCIS may verify information before or after your case is decided.

Agency verification methods may include, but are not limited to: review of public records and information; contact through written correspondence, the internet, fax, other electronic transmission, or telephone; unannounced physical site inspections of residences and locations of employment; and interviews. USCIS will use information obtained through verification to assess your compliance with the laws and to determine your eligibility for an immigration benefit.

Subject to the restrictions under 8 CFR 103.2(b)(16), USCIS will provide you with an opportunity to address any adverse or derogatory information that may result from a USCIS compliance review, verification, or site visit after a formal decision is made on your case or after the agency has initiated an adverse action which may result in revocation or termination of an approval.

DHS Privacy Notice

AUTHORITIES: The information requested on this application, and the associated evidence, is collected under the Immigration and Nationality Act sections 1103 and 1184, and Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) parts 103, 214, and 248.

PURPOSE: The primary purpose for providing the requested information on this application is to apply for an extension of stay or a change from one nonimmigrant category to another nonimmigrant category. DHS will use the information you provide to grant or deny the immigration benefit you are seeking.

DISCLOSURE: The information you provide is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information, including your Social Security number (if applicable), and any requested evidence, may delay a final decision or result in denial of your application.

Paperwork Reduction Act

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The public reporting burden for these collections of information is estimated at 2 hours per response for the I-539, and 35 minutes per response for the I-539A, including the time for reviewing instructions, gathering the required documentation and information, completing the application, preparing statements, attaching necessary documentation, and submitting the application. The collection of biometrics is estimated to require 1 hour and 10 minutes. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Coordination Division, Office of Policy and Strategy, 20 Massachusetts Ave NW, Washington, DC 20529-2140; OMB No. 1615-0003. Do not mail your completed Form I-539 and I-539A to this address.
