As part of the naturalization process, you will need to provide evidence to support your application. These documents help us evaluate your application and verify your answers are true.

You are required to provide several documents now as part of submitting your application. You will also need to provide additional evidence, which you can submit now or bring to your naturalization interview.

Do not send or provide original documents to USCIS in the mail. Provide legible copies of your documents unless USCIS later requests original documents.
Additional evidence to support your application

Including these documents now can help make the application process easier, but you can also bring them to your naturalization interview if you do not choose to upload them now.

Tax documents - 3 years

Tax returns are not required for every application, but we encourage you to provide them, especially if you are applying based on marriage to a U.S. citizen or have traveled outside of the United States for 6 months or more.
Check your application before you submit

We will review your application to check for accuracy and completeness before you submit it.

We encourage you to provide as many responses as you can throughout the application. Missing information can slow down the review process after you submit your application.

You can return to this page to review your application as many times as you want before you submit it.
