Before You Start Your Application

Eligibility

A child may obtain U.S. citizenship if he or she meets all the following criteria to be eligible for citizenship under INA section 322.
Completing Your Form Online

Filing online

Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.

Provide as many responses as you can

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form. If you do not finish your form in one session, you can sign in to your account to continue where you left off.

We will automatically save your responses

We will automatically save your information when you select next to go to a new page or navigate to another section of the form. Your responses will be saved for 30 days. You can sign in to your account at any time to continue where you left off.
The application is being filed for a child. The child is under 18 years of age and:

- The BIOLOGICAL child of a qualifying U.S. citizen parent filing this application
- The ADOPTED child of a qualifying U.S. citizen parent filing this application

Evidence to Support Your Application

As part of applying for a citizenship and issuance of a certificate, you will need to provide evidence to support your application. These documents help us evaluate your application and verify your answers.

You are required to provide several documents as part of submitting your application. You may also need to provide additional evidence, depending on how you answered some questions.

Do not send original documents to USCIS in the mail. Provide legible copies of your documents unless USCIS later requests original documents.
If a required document is unavailable, you must provide a typed or printed explanation of the reasons that document is unavailable and submit secondary evidence to establish eligibility. Secondary evidence must overcome the unavailability of the required documents. USCIS may request an original typed or printed statement from the appropriate government or other legal authority to support your claim that the documents are available.

The following types of secondary evidence may be submitted to establish eligibility:

- Baptismal certificate
- School record
- Census records
- Affidavits
Optional explanation

You may provide additional information for your application

If you need to provide any additional information for any of your answers to the questions in this form, enter it into the space below. You should include the questions that you are referencing.

If you do not need to provide any additional information, you may leave this section blank.
