What Is the Purpose of Form I-864A?

Form I-864A, Contract Between Sponsor and Household Member, is an attachment to Form I-864, Affidavit of Support Under Section 213A of the INA. A separate Form I-864A must be executed by the sponsor’s spouse whose income and/or assets are being used by a sponsor to meet the income requirements of section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), if the spouse is not the intending immigrant. Each Form I-864A is executed by two individuals: the sponsor who is executing Form I-864 and a household member (the sponsor’s spouse or the intending immigrant in certain circumstances) who is promising to make his or her income and/or assets available to the sponsor to help support the sponsored immigrants. The combined execution of this contract constitutes an agreement that the household member is responsible along with the sponsor for the support of the individuals named in this contract.

This contract must be submitted with Form I-864.

Form I-864A may only be used when a sponsor’s income and assets do not meet the income requirements of section 213A of the INA and the qualifying household member chooses to combine his or her income and/or assets with the income and/or assets of a sponsor to meet the income requirements. The obligations of the household member under this contract terminate when the obligations of the sponsor under the Form I-864 terminate, unless the sponsor’s obligation terminated because of the sponsor’s death. A household member’s obligation under this contract also terminates when the household member dies.

For additional information, see section 213A of the INA and Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations Part 213a.

What Is a Sponsor?

A sponsor is:

1. The petitioning relative;
2. A relative with a significant ownership interest in the petitioning entity; or
3. A substitute in the case of a deceased petitioner, or another person accepting joint and several liability with the sponsor; AND
4. An individual who executed Form I-864 on behalf of an intending immigrant. A sponsor must be an individual and may not be an enterprise, a business, or any other type of organization.

Who May Be Considered a Household Member for Purposes of Form I-864A?

For purposes of this contract, one or more of the following individuals may execute the Form I-864A as a household member if at least 18 years of age:

1. The sponsor’s spouse; or
2. The intending immigrant, if the sponsor seeks to rely on an intending immigrant’s continuing income to establish the sponsor’s ability to support the intending immigrant’s spouse or children.

How Can the Intending Immigrant Be Considered a Household Member for Purposes of Form I-864A?

Listed below are the only two ways that the intending immigrant may be considered a household member for the purposes of combining income with the sponsor to meet the income requirements in section 213A of the INA:
1. The intending immigrant has the same principal residence as the sponsor and the intending immigrant can establish that his or her income is accrued or earned from employment in a lawful enterprise or some other lawful source and employment that is authorized pursuant to 8 CFR 274a.12, and will continue to be derived from a lawful source after acquisition of lawful permanent resident status; or

2. The intending immigrant is the sponsor’s spouse and the intending immigrant can show that his or her income is accrued or earned from employment in a lawful enterprise or some other lawful source and employment that is authorized pursuant to 8 CFR 274a.12, and will continue to be derived from a lawful source after acquisition of lawful permanent resident status.

The intending immigrant only executes Form I-864A when his or her income and/or assets are being combined with the sponsor’s income and assets to sponsor the intending immigrant’s spouse or children.

Why Does a Household Member Execute Form I-864A?

A household member executes this contract if the household member’s income and/or assets will be used to demonstrate the sponsor’s ability to meet the income requirements and the means to maintain the sponsored immigrant at an annual income at the level specified in section 213A(f)(1)(E) or section 213A(f)(3) of the INA.

If the Intending Immigrant Is a Household Member, Must He or She Execute This Contract?

If you are the intending immigrant and the sponsor is including your income on Form I-864 to meet the income requirements in section 213A of the INA, you need to execute this contract only if you have accompanying dependents. If you are the intending immigrant and the sponsor is including only your assets on Form I-864, you do not need to complete this contract, even if you have accompanying dependents.

Part 2. Your (the Household Member’s) Relationship to the Sponsor

Item Numbers 1.a. - 1.c. Select the item which best reflects your relationship to the sponsor.

If you select Item Number 1.a. (intending immigrant and married to the sponsor), you do not have to reside with the sponsor, but you must provide proof that your income will continue from a lawful source after immigration.

If you select Item Number 1.b. (intending immigrant and not married to the sponsor), you must provide proof that you currently have the same principal residence as the sponsor and that your income will continue from a lawful source after immigration.

You are not required to submit this evidence, however, unless specifically instructed to do so by a government official. For example, you may include a recent letter from your employer, showing your employer’s address and telephone number, and indicating your annual salary. You may also provide pay stubs showing your income for the previous six months. If your claimed income includes alimony, child support, dividend or interest income, or income from any other source, you may also include evidence of ability to maintain that income.

Part 4. Your (the Household Member’s) Federal Income Tax Information and Assets

You must provide either Internal Revenue Service (IRS)-issued certified copies or transcripts of your Federal individual income tax return for the three most recent tax years.

Do not submit any tax returns that you filed with any foreign government unless you are claiming that you were not required to file a Federal income tax returns with the United States Government and you wish to rely on the foreign return solely to establish the amount of your income that was not subject to tax in the United States.
If you selected Item Number 1.b. in Part 3., that you are self-employed, you should have completed one of the following forms with your Federal income tax return: Schedule C (Profit or Loss from Business), Schedule D (Capital Gains), Schedule E (Supplemental Income or Loss), or Schedule F (Profit or Loss from Farming). You must include each and every Form 1040 Schedule, if any, that you filed with your Federal income tax return.

As stated previously, you must submit IRS-issued certified copies or transcripts of your Federal individual income tax return for the three most recent tax years. If you were required to file a Federal income tax return for any of the three most recent tax years but did not do so, you must file any and all late returns with the IRS and attach an IRS-issued certified copy or transcript of each late return and submit it with Form I-864A. If you were not required to file Federal income tax returns under U.S. tax law because your income was too low for any of the three most recent tax years, attach a typed or printed explanation.

If you were not required to file Federal income tax returns under U.S. tax law for any other reason for any of the three most recent tax years, attach a typed or printed explanation including evidence of the exemption and how you qualified for it. Residence outside of the United States does not exempt U.S. citizens or lawful permanent residents from filing a U.S. Federal income tax return. See Filing Requirements in the IRS Form 1040 Filing Instructions to determine whether you were required to file.

For purposes of this contract, the line for Total Income on IRS Forms 1040 and 1040A will be considered when determining income. For persons filing IRS Form 1040 EZ, the line for Adjusted Gross Income will be considered.

Item Numbers 3.a. - 3.d. Assets. Complete this item only if the sponsor is using the value of your assets to help meet the income requirements on Form I-864. If you are using only your income to help the sponsor meet the income requirements, do not complete this item.

If you are the intending immigrant and have no accompanying dependents, then do not list your assets on this contract. Instead, you must list your assets in Part 8., Item Numbers 6. - 10. of the Form I-864 and do not need to complete this form.

Only assets that can be converted into cash within one year may be included. The owner of the asset must include a description of the asset, proof of ownership, and the basis for the owner’s claim of its net cash value.

You may include the net value of your home as an asset. The net value of the home is the appraised value of the home, minus the sum of any and all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home.

If you wish to include the net value of your home, you must include documentation demonstrating that you own it, a recent appraisal by a licensed appraiser, and evidence of the amount of any and all loans secured by a mortgage, trust deed, or other lien on the home. Item Number 11. Credit Report and Credit Score. You must provide a copy of a U.S. credit report and credit score generated within the last 12 months prior to the date of submission, if available, with your Form I-864A.

You can obtain a free credit report once a year under the Fair Credit Reporting Act from each one of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies (Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion). You are only required to provide one credit report and credit score from any of the three nationwide credit reporting agencies. See https://www.usa.gov/credit-reports for more information.

If there are any errors in the credit report, you should provide evidence from the nationwide credit reporting agency that demonstrates that you reported the error and that the error is under investigation or has been resolved.
