We will consider whether you have an economic necessity to work by reviewing your current annual income, your current annual expenses, and the total current value of your assets. Provide this financial information on Form I-765WS. If you would like to provide an explanation, complete Part 3. Explanation of the worksheet. Supporting evidence is not required, but USCIS will accept and review any documentation that you submit. You do not need to include other household members' financial information to establish your own economic necessity. (2) The filing fee for Form I-765 is based on the Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals category and the associated biometric services fee cannot be waived. Additional factors that may be considered include, but are not limited to, the following: A. 		with the terms and conditions for release and; (3) Form I-765 Worksheet (Form I-765WS) to demonstrate that you have an economic necessity to work. NOTE: Your release on an order of supervision alone does not render you eligible for employment authorization under 8 CFR 274a.12(c)(18). USCIS will deny your application unless your Form I-220B is annotated by ICE to indicate that your removal is impracticable because all countries from whom travel documents have been requested have affirmatively declined to issue a travel document. Employment authorization is discretionary and USCIS may deny your application as a matter of discretion even if you cannot be removed is impracticable and you demonstrate economic necessity to work. NOTE: We will consider whether you have an economic necessity to work by reviewing your current annual income, your current annual expenses, and the total current value of your assets. Factors USCIS may consider include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) Whether you are the primary provider of economic support for a dependent U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident children, spouse, and/or parents; (2) The anticipated length of time before you can be removed from the United States; (3) Whether you are complying with the conditions for release from detention noted on Form I-220B, Order of Supervision; and (4) Whether you have been arrested for or convicted of any crimes after having been ordered removed from the United States and released from custody on an order of supervision; D.
