2018 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

PUB CRAWLS

- Castro Pub Crawl
- Chinatown/North Beach Pub Crawl
- SOMA (South of Market) Pub Crawl
- Tenderloin Pub Crawl
- The Mission Pub Crawl
- Union Square Pub Crawl

Note: Please see more information regarding each pub crawl attached below!
Castro Pub Crawl

The 2013 San Francisco AILA Conference hosted a few pub crawls, and they were a huge success. This year we doubled the number of crawls to give attendees more variety to explore this incredible City.

Each pub crawl will begin at 4:00 pm on Thursday, and will begin at the first pub crawl on the list - not at the hotel. Just look for the designated leader who will be the unofficial guide for the group. The walking distance is less than a mile for each crawl. We will try to hit as many pubs as possible by around 7:00 pm.

Thursday night is the night of the AILA reception at AT&T Park, where the Giants play baseball. Ending by 7:00 pm should give everybody plenty of time to make their way to the ballpark.

San Francisco is famous for it’s gay pride movement and history, and The Castro neighborhood is the vibrant heart of the City’s gay community.

The starting point for this crawl is not walkable from the Hotel. Consider taking MUNI get to the starting point and back to the Hotel. MUNI is San Francisco’s public transportation system, consisting of subways (“MUNI Rail”), trolleys, cable cars, and buses. The MUNI Rail stop closest to the hotel is Powell & Market, and is only about 3 blocks away from the hotel. To get to the starting point of this crawl, take MUNI Rail “outbound” 4 stops and get off at Castro. You’ll see the bar as soon as you exit the station.

Riders need to buy a “Clipper Card” pass / ticket to ride MUNI, and these are available for purchase at any station.

Uber / Lyft is also available.

Thursday night is the night of the AILA reception at AT&T Park, where the Giants play baseball. Ending by 7:00 pm should give everybody plenty of time to make their way to the ballpark.

Chinatown / North Beach is the host to the oldest Chinese settlement in the Western Hemisphere, pressed up right next to San Francisco’s famous Italian neighborhood.

The starting point for this pub crawl is about a mile / 20 minute walk from the Hotel.

This would be a good opportunity to ride a Cable Car. There is a Cable Car turn around / stop at the corner of Powell and Market, about 2 blocks from the hotel. You can buy tickets there. Ride the car up the hill about 11 blocks and hop off at Washington Street. Then it’s just two blocks down Washington to the first bar.
