

Announcements

More in This Section >

- <Close

Programs
Wage and Occupation Information and Resources
Seasonal Jobs
Policies and Regulations
Forms
Performance Data
Foreign Labor Recruiter List
Debarments List
Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)
Announcements
News Archive
Foreign Labor Application Gateway (FLAG) Online Filing
Permanent Employment Certification (PERM) Online Filing
OFLC Help Desks
Contacts
Sitemap

Archive

Calendar Year 2021

- March 2, 2021. OFLC Announces Number of Issued Certifications for Employers Seeking H-2B Workers With April 1, 2021, Start Dates of Need

The Office of Foreign Labor Certification (OFLC) is making this public service announcement to alert employers and other interested stakeholders about the number of temporary labor certifications and worker positions issued for the H-2B program.

As of March 1, 2021, OFLC has issued 3,598 H-2B Temporary Labor Certifications covering 65,832 worker positions. Filers who have received a temporary labor certification may file a petition with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). OFLC will continue to process H-2B applications, regardless of any H-2B visa cap administered by USCIS.