RE: Request for 60-Day Comment Period for USCIS Proposed Fee Schedule: DHS Docket USCIS-2019-0010; RIN 1615-AC18

Dear Acting Director Cuccinelli and Acting Administrator Ray:

We, the undersigned organizations, write to respectfully request that USCIS not limit but ensure a standard 60-day review period in connection with USCIS' proposal to adjust certain immigration and naturalization benefit request fees and the associated regulatory changes.

On November 8, 2019, the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services posted for public inspection its biennial fee review and fee adjustment schedule in the Federal Register. The pre-publication notice at page 2 indicated the public would be given only 30 days for comment. We are writing to respectfully request an extension of the comment period in view of the wide scope of this 300+ page rule and in keeping with past USCIS practices that provided the public a 60-day period to review and comment.

Executive Order 12866 states that agencies should allow "not less than 60 days" for public comment in most cases, in order to "afford the public a meaningful opportunity to comment on any proposed regulation." Executive Order 13563 states that "[t]o the extent feasible and permitted by law, each agency shall afford the public a meaningful opportunity to comment through the Internet on any proposed regulation, with a comment period that should generally be at least 60 days."

Considering the complexity of the rule, its policy implications above and beyond fee changes, and the serious consequences of the changes proposed, the undersigned do not see a justification for deviating from the 60-day standard for comment periods, as designated in EO 12866 and EO 13563.

In its proposed rule, USCIS provides no justification whatsoever for deviating from these executive orders. A comparison with prior comparable proposed fee rules shows what a dramatic and unprecedented departure from past practice it would be for USCIS to persist with a 30-day public comment period in this instance:

- 2007 proposed fee rule: approx. 25,500 words (60 days for public comments)
- 2016 proposed fee rule: approx. 38,300 words (60 days for public comments)
- 2019 proposed fee rule: approx. 90,900 words (30 days for public comments)

In other words, USCIS is currently requiring that the public thoroughly analyze and provide comments on a rule that is over 3.5 times longer than a comparable prior proposed rule, in only half the time.

We request this extension of the comment period in order to allow our organizations and the public adequate time to review the proposed regulatory and policy changes and provide meaningful feedback. A 60-day comment period would allow more organizations and affected groups to carefully examine the changes and weigh-in, in turn providing USCIS with more meaningful information to better address and consider the scope of related issues, assess unintended consequences, and prevent potential waste of resources.

Given the nature of the proposals and populations involved, we believe that these unique and expansive changes warrant additional time for review and comment. We thank you for your consideration of our request.
