National Stakeholder Engagement on Form I-730, Refugee/Asylee Following-to-Join Processing

Wednesday, May 29, 2024 | 2-3 p.m. Eastern

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services invites you to participate in our national stakeholder engagement on Form I-730, Refugee/Asylee Relative Petition processing on Wednesday, May 29, 2024, from 2-3 p.m. Eastern. The Form I-730 petition is used by certain principal refugees and asylees to request following-to-join benefits for their qualifying spouse or unmarried children under 21 years of age.

This national engagement will be an opportunity for us to provide updates on Form I-730 processing. We are committed to our humanitarian mission and implementing new changes to ensure we adjudicate petitions and applications in a timely and efficient manner.

To Register:

1. Visit our registration page.
2. You will be asked to provide your email address and select “Submit.”
