The Honorable Nita Lowey
Ranking Member, Committee on Appropriations
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Chairman Cochran, Vice Chairman Leahy, Chairman Frelinghuysen and Ranking Member Lowey:

We, the undersigned, immigrant rights, civil and human rights, faith-based, environmental, labor and women's organizations write to ask you to oppose President Trump's request for $4.5 billion to fund his executive orders that would fund the construction of a divisive border wall, expand his deportation force and immigration detention and lower accountability for immigration and border agents. We therefore urge you to significantly reduce funding for immigration enforcement and detention in the FY2018 Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and Department of Justice (DOJ) appropriations bills until the Administration can demonstrate that there is prioritization and accountability at the agencies.

We can no longer treat funding immigration enforcement as business as usual. It is the stated goal of the President of the United States to deport millions of immigrants. Trump and his appointees have eliminated all prioritization and discretion from the system. There is no room for consideration of a person's equities, including length of time living in the U.S., U.S. citizen children or ties to their communities. Through the expansion of expedited removal and truncated asylum processes, DHS is undermining due process and deporting people with humanitarian claims. By unleashing this force with virtually no limitations, the Administration has fostered an unprecedented climate of fear among immigrants, their families and their communities.

President Trump has laid out his vision for mass deportation through three executive orders that seek to create a Muslim ban, supercharge interior enforcement, coerce local law enforcement to enforce immigration law, and dramatically expand detention. But he can't fully implement his agenda unless Congress appropriates the funding. In this new era, every dollar appropriated for immigration enforcement is a dollar that moves the President closer to his goal of banning, deporting and excluding immigrants in the United States. We call upon members of Congress to stand with immigrants and oppose this funding that would enable the President's merciless and indiscriminate deportation machine.

At current funding levels, the consequences of President Trump's DHS is chilling:

- Fewer women are reporting sexual assault and domestic violence across the country, and are less willing to go to the police.<sup>1</sup> Houston saw a 40% drop in reports of rapes this year from the same period last year.<sup>2</sup> Los Angeles saw a 10% drop in reports of domestic violence among Latinos and 25% drop in reports of sexual assault.<sup>3</sup> In Denver, fear of deportation has caused some witnesses of violent crimes to skip court, ultimately allowing several cases to be dropped and suspects to walk free.<sup>4</sup> In Montgomery County, Md., calls for sexual assault and domestic violence have dropped by 50% compared to last year.<sup>5</sup>
- In likely violation of treaties the US has signed and international human rights law, child refugees fleeing the threat of murder are being denied even a basic credible fear hearing.<sup>6</sup>
- Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") and Customs and Border Protection (CBP) are entering courthouses and arresting women seeking protection from domestic violence.<sup>7</sup>
- DHS Secretary Kelly has publicly stated that he plans to use mass detention as a deterrent of future illegal immigration, a violation of the 4th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.<sup>8</sup>

- In February, ICE agents conducted an “early morning ambush,” apprehending a handful of men as they left a hypothermia shelter at a church in Alexandria, VA.<sup>9</sup>
- At least five DACA recipients reportedly have been detained and at least one deported.<sup>10</sup>

At close to $19 billion a year, the United States already spends more on immigration enforcement than all other law enforcement agencies combined. Congress should not fund President Trump’s executive orders that will further his mass deportation regime that indiscriminately targets all undocumented immigrants, including long-time residents with deep ties to the United States.

In this environment, every dollar appropriated for ICE and CBP agents, fugitive operations and immigrant jail space directly contributes to the President’s goal. These dollars are funding the tools that rip families apart, that spread fear and distrust in our communities and sacrifice real public safety for demagoguery. Rather than tearing families apart, implementing mass incarceration and creating fear in our communities, we believe that scarce taxpayer funds should be spent on building up communities, investing in families and promoting growth and economic security. The President’s mass deportation plan is targeting precisely those immigrants who the vast majority of Americans--9 out of 10--support granting permanent legal status as part of immigration reform. Our nation needs solutions to our immigration system that benefit our country rather than wasting billions of taxpayer dollars on enforcement that hurts public safety and our economy.

Sincerely,
