Afghan Nationals Under Operation Allies Welcome are Reminded to Change Their Address with USCIS When They Move

If you are an Afghan national paroled into the United States under Operation Allies Welcome (OAW), please ensure that you notify U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) of an address change within 10 days each time you move, even if you are moving to a temporary location. Not only must USCIS have your current physical address to send you notices and documents without delay, it is a condition of your parole. You can change your address online and update your address on any pending applications and petitions at the same time using the USCIS Online Change of Address system or by visiting uscis.gov/ar-11. Using this system will change the address on file with USCIS for all pending applications, petitions, or requests that you include receipt numbers for on the form, and will help to ensure that USCIS correspondence is sent to your current physical address.

Note: If you need to report non-delivery or non-receipt of an Employment Authorization Document, create an inquiry with USCIS online at e-Request - Non-Delivery of Card.

Changing your address with the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) will not change your address with USCIS. Please update your information with both USCIS and the USPS.

If you have any issues or questions about an address change request, email USCIS at nbcafgancoa@uscis.dhs.gov. Only use this email address if you entered the United States on or after July 30, 2021, due to the humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan.

You may also call the Contact Center at 800-375-5283 or visit the USCIS Contact Center webpage. For more information, visit the USCIS Information for Afghan Nationals webpage.
