

AILA Citizenship Day 2026 Media and Outreach Guide

Thank you for your interest in promoting your chapter's Citizenship Day activities with the press and public through media and social media outreach! AILA and our partners, the National Partnership for New Americans (NPNA), NALEO Educational Fund, Citizenshipworks, and the New Americans Campaign, have put together some tools to help you do just that.

In this Media and Outreach Guide you'll find five tools:

1. A template media advisory that you can customize with the chapter logo and specific information about your event. If you'd like a list of some local media outlets, AILA's Communications staff would be happy to help with that – email bwoods@aila.org with the request.
2. A set of talking points to help you when reaching out to reporters with some information about the naturalization process and why Citizenship Day is important. Please don't send these directly to reporters; instead keep these for your personal use when responding to press questions or inquiries.
3. A template Letter to the Editor \(LTE\) for you to personalize and submit to your local outlet in response to an immigration-related article in which you can highlight the upcoming Citizenship Day event. Questions about how to use the template? Please reach out to Belle Woods, bwoods@aila.org.
4. A social media toolkit with template tweets and Facebook posts, developed with our partners the National Partnership for New Americans (NPNA), NALEO Educational Fund, Citizenshipworks, and the New Americans Campaign. Share these with your chapter members so you can use social media to get the word out about Citizenship Day and share why you are volunteering your time. Questions about how to use the sample social? Please reach out to Devra Gelman at dgelman@aila.org or Belle Woods at bwoods@aila.org.

Looking for some tips on how to use social media? Check out AILA's Social Media Guide.

We are thrilled that so many of our members will be helping eligible immigrants take those last few steps toward becoming citizens. Thank you for your efforts and don't hesitate to reach out with any questions!

[City/State] – The [CHAPTER] of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) will participate in the 21st annual AILA Citizenship Day event on [DATE] at [LOCATION]. Each year, at sites across the country, AILA attorneys and other stakeholders provide assistance to lawful permanent residents, otherwise known as green card holders, who are eligible for naturalization. AILA is proud to join our partners, the National Partnership for New Americans (NPNA), NALEO Educational Fund, Citizenshipworks, and the New Americans Campaign, in this event. Last year, dozens of in-person and virtual naturalization clinics were held across the country, serving hundreds of immigrants who aspired to become citizens.

Media are invited to [CHAPTER] local event, which will be held at:

[location with address in bold]

[time of event]

[EXPECTED # OF AILA MEMBERS/ATTORNEYS] will be joined by [EXPECTED NUMBER OF OTHER VOLUNTEERS/STAFF] to help eligible local community members apply for citizenship.

###

The American Immigration Lawyers Association is the national association of more than 18,000 immigration lawyers established to promote justice, advocate for fair and reasonable immigration law and policy, advance the quality of immigration and nationality law and practice, and enhance the professional development of its members.

Talking Points on Citizenship Day

- Estimates are that there are between eight and nine million lawful permanent residents (green card holders) living and working in the United States who qualify for naturalization – becoming a U.S. citizen.
- According to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), over the past decade, more than 7.9 million lawful permanent residents became naturalized citizens: more than 818,000 in Fiscal Year 2024 alone.
- Becoming a U.S. citizen is an important decision for an immigrant and their family; it requires not only a demonstrated commitment to America and its values, but a lot of paperwork and fees.
- We know there are many obstacles that can prevent a green card holder from becoming a citizen – including not knowing where to start, not knowing what questions to ask, and not knowing where to go for answers.
- Each year, AILA and its members partner with organizations like NALEO Educational Fund, the National Partnership for New Americans (NPNA), the New Americans Campaign, and Citizenshipworks to hold Citizenship Day events where eligible applicants can get help with their paperwork, ensure they are filing correctly, and learn what's next in their path to citizenship.
- The workshops are designed to provide comprehensive assistance to immigrants wishing to take their first steps toward U.S. citizenship.
- General eligibility requirements for naturalization include:
 - Be at least 18 years of age;
 - Be a lawful permanent resident (green card holder);
 - Have resided in the United States as a lawful permanent resident for at least five years, three years if married to a U.S. citizen and living in marital union, or under certain other circumstances;
 - Have been physically present in the United States for at least 30 months, 18 months for one married to a U.S. Citizen;
 - Be a person of good moral character;
 - Be able to speak, read, write, and understand the English language;
 - Have knowledge of U.S. government and history; and
 - Be willing and able to take the Oath of Allegiance.
- Language assistance at our Citizenship Day event in XXXX will include XXXXX. If there are individuals who hesitate to attend because they don't think someone will speak their language, we hope that this language assistance will help assuage those concerns.

Template Letter to the Editor (LTE) – please update/personalize where appropriate. An LTE is written and published in response to an article that appears in your paper, whether that article is written by a local reporter or from a wire service like the Associated Press. Remember that your local paper will likely have a word limit for LTEs. Wondering how to find that out, or how to submit one? Reach out to Belle Woods, bwoods@aila.org.

You can also edit this Template to be shared after Citizenship Day activities if you wish, simply edit to be past tense and you can include the number of aspiring citizens you/the chapter were able to help!

TEMPLATE:

When I read a story about our current immigration laws, like “INSERT HEADLINE,” published on “INSERT DATE,” it brings to mind the millions of green card holders in the United States who qualify for U.S. citizenship.

U.S. citizenship is a privilege, one that comes with rights and responsibilities, including the right to vote. The right to vote gives one a say in who will be chosen to move important issues, like immigration reform, forward in Congress and in the White House.

That’s why I’m so honored, along with countless other immigration lawyers and legal services volunteers throughout the country, to take part in the 21st annual American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) Citizenship Day on DATE, where we will advise aspiring citizens on their eligibility for naturalization and help qualified individuals complete their applications.

Applying for citizenship can be a daunting process but the rewards are unmatched. If you or someone you know wants to become a U.S. citizen, but you don’t know where to start, what questions to ask, or where to get answers, find an event online and take that first step.
