	Primary Evidence Form I-914, Supplement B, Declaration of Law Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons The primary evidence of your claim to be a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons shall be Form I-914, Supplement B, Declaration of Law Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons. That declaration is appended to this form. You are not required to file Form I-914, Supplement B, to prove your claim. However, the endorsement of a Federal, State, or local law enforcement officer on Form I-914, Supplement B, constitutes primary evidence that you are a victim and that you have complied with any reasonable request from a Federal, State, or local law enforcement authority for assistance in the investigation or prosecution of the acts of trafficking. These elements of your claim may be difficult to establish otherwise, and submission of Form I-914, Supplement B, is strongly advised. Instructions pertinent to Form I-914, Supplement B, are appended to that form. If you do not provide a completed Form I-914, Supplement B, you must submit an explanation, describing your attempts to obtain the certification and why it does not exist or is unavailable. If you did not attempt to obtain the certification, you must explain why you did not. Secondary Evidence If you do not provide a completed Form I-914, Supplement B, Declaration of Law Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons, in addition to the explanation described above, you must also submit credible secondary evidence to establish that you are or have been a victim of a severe form of trafficking in persons and that you complied with any reasonable request from law enforcement. Such evidence may include, but is not limited to: police reports, newspaper articles, witness affidavits, or any other form of evidence. Even if you do provide Form I-914, Supplement B, you may submit additional evidence. [Page 6] Personal Statement Including a personal narrative statement is strongly encouraged. That statement should	Evidence of Cooperation with Reasonable Requests from Law Enforcement [Section heading] Form I-914, Supplement B, Declaration of Law Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons (optional) One type of evidence of your claim to be a victim of a severe form of human trafficking in persons is Form I-914, Supplement B. That declaration and instructions are appended to this form. You are not required to file Form I-914, Supplement B, to prove your claim. However, the endorsement of a Federal, State, or local law enforcement officer on Form I-914, Supplement B, is one type of evidence that you are a victim and that you have complied with any reasonable request from Federal, State, or local law enforcement authority for assistance in the investigation or prosecution of the acts of trafficking.
