Petition For Alien Relative

A citizen or lawful permanent resident of the United States may file Petition for Alien Relative (I-130), with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to establish the existence of a relationship to certain alien relatives who wish to immigrate to the United States.

Filing the I-130 is only the first step in helping a relative immigrate to the United States. Eligible family members must wait until there is a visa number available before they can apply to become a lawful permanent resident. If, at that time, your relative is present in the United States, they can apply for lawful permanent resident status through a process called Adjustment of Status. However, if your relative is outside of the United States, they must complete consular processing with the U.S. Department of State at an embassy or consulate to first get an immigrant visa and travel to the United States to be admitted as a lawful permanent resident.

Review the Petition for an Alien Relative \(I-130\) page for links to the paper forms.

Before You Start Your Application

Eligibility

1. If you are a U.S. citizen, you must file a separate Form I-130 for each eligible

Completing your form online

Filing online

Submitting your application online is the same as mailing in a completed paper form. They both gather the same information and cost the same.

Complete the Getting Started section first

You should answer all questions in the Getting Started section first so we can best customize the rest of your online form experience.

Provide as many responses as you can

You should provide as many responses as you can. Incomplete fields or sections and missing information can slow down the process after you submit your form.

We will automatically save your responses

Preparer and interpreter information

i Before you begin

A petitioner is the U.S. citizen or legal permanent resident who files an alien petition on behalf of a family member.

A beneficiary is the family member you are petitioning for.

Currently, only the Petition for Alien Relative (I-130) is the form available online. The beneficiary will have to submit the Adjustment of Status Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (I-485) as a paper form.

I-130: Evidence – Evidence to support your petition

As part of petitioning for a relative, you will need to provide evidence to support your I-130. These documents help us evaluate your application and verify your answers.

You are required to provide several documents as part of submitting your application. You may also need to provide additional evidence, depending on how you answered some questions.

Do not send original documents to USCIS in the mail. Provide legible copies of your documents unless USCIS later requests original documents.

Proof of Lawful Permanent Resident Status

Upload an image of both sides of your Permanent Resident Card (I-321) (formerly known as the Alien Registration Card or Green Card).

Make sure all text is clear and readable. If you have not yet received your card, submit copies of your passport biographic page and the page showing admission as a lawful permanent resident, or other evidence of permanent resident status issued by USCIS or the former INS.

2" x 2" photo of your spouse

Upload a recent color photograph of your spouse that measures 2 inches by 2 inches, with their face measuring 1 inch to 1 3/8 inch from your chin to the top of their head. Their eyes should be between 1 1/8 inch and 1 3/8 inch from the bottom of the photo.

Make sure their whole face is visible, they are facing the camera directly, and the background is white or off-white. Their head must be bare, unless contrary to their religious beliefs. Also, include an image of the back of the photograph with their name and A-Number written in pen or pencil.

If you need help understanding the photo requirements or want to resize, rotate, or crop your photo, you can use the Department of State's photo composition tools.

Proof of legal name change

If either you or the person you are filing for is using a name that is not the same name shown on the relevant documents, you must file your petition with copies of the legal documents reflecting the name change, such as:

- A marriage certificate
- An adoption decree
- A court order

Affidavits

If records like those described above are not available, then you may submit two or more written statements from individuals who were living at the time and who have personal knowledge of the event you are trying to prove, such as the date and place of birth, marriage, or death. The individuals making the written statements do not have to be U.S. citizens.

Each written statement must contain the following information regarding the individual making the written statement::

- Full legal name
- Address
- Place of birth
- Date of birth
- Detailed information about the event
- Detailed information explaining how the individual acquired personal knowledge of the event
